REINVENT YOURSELF!

Friends, Hala and Asma, 18, want to reinvent themselves.

What are you going to do?

Asma isn't going to eat sugary snacks. And she's going to take care of her skin. I'm going to try wearing different colours. And I'm going to grow my hair a little longer. We want to get in shape, so we're going to start doing sports. I'm going to get fitter and Asma's going to work on her swimming skills.

Are you going to change your personalities too?

Yes, we are. We aren't going to be so impatient and bad-tempered. We're going to be more sociable, energetic and outgoing. We're going to study harder and Asma's going to look for a job next summer.

And what about spring cleaning? Are you going to tidy your rooms?

No, I'm not! (I did it last week.)

Friends, Hala and Asma want to make some changes to themselves.

LESSON 1A VOCABULARY AND GRAMMAR

1 In pairs, look at the photo and answer the questions.

- 1 Why do you think the people in the photo wanted to change things about themselves?
- 2 How often do you like to change your appearance?
- 3 What was the last thing you did to make a change to yourself?

2 Read the interview with Hala and Asma and find the following information.

- 1 some things Asma wants to change about her appearance
- 2 some things Hala wants to change about her appearance
- 3 some things they both want to do

3 6.1 Read and listen to the conversation and answer the questions.

- 1 What does Asma invite Hala to do?
- 2 Why does she turn down her invitation?

Asma What are you doing this evening?

Hala Nothing much. Why?

Asma Because my cousin Dana's coming round at seven. It's her birthday, so we're ordering food and watching a film. Her sister Jameela isn't coming because she's working tonight, so it's just the two of us. We're ordering from that new Shawarma place and then we're going to cousin Lama's house. Are you coming?

Hala No, thanks. I'm not that keen on Shawarma. I'm just going to stay at home, study a bit and do my exercises. Alright?

Future arrangements and intentions

4 Look at sentences 1–4. Which sentence expresses ...

- a  an arrangement in a certain place in the future?
- b  an intention in the near future?
- c  an arrangement at a certain time in the future?
- d  a plan or ambition in the more distant future?

- 1 We're going to start doing sports.
- 2 Asma's going to look for a job next summer.
- 3 Dana's coming round at seven.
- 4 We're ordering from that new Shawarma place.

5 Study the Grammar box and check your answers to Exercise 4. Then in pairs, find more examples of the Present Continuous and going to in the interview on page 4 and the conversation in Exercise 3.

Future arrangements and intentions

To talk about definite plans and arrangements in the near future, we use the Present Continuous. We usually mention the time and place as well.

To talk about future intentions, ambitions or unfinalised plans, we use going to + infinitive.

Grammar Reference > page 69

6 Look at Hala's diary and write sentences with the correct forms of the Present Continuous. Then in pairs, close your books and ask and answer questions about the diary.

*What's Hala doing on Wednesday?
Is she visiting Petra on Thursday?*

Wednesday 14	Thursday 15	Friday 16	Saturday 17
5 p.m. work on a school project at Lama's house	9 a.m. school trip to Petra cancelled ☹️	8 p.m. street festival with Mum and Dad	10.30 a.m. visit to charity centre
			Sunday 18 4 p.m. studying with Asma

Now go to Workbook page 4 for the next lesson.

LESSON 2A READING AND VOCABULARY

1 Look at the photo on page 7. In pairs, ask and answer the questions.

- 1 The boy has an important exam coming up but he's not studying. What is he doing?
- 2 Do you ever waste time instead of studying? What kind of things do you do?

2 Look at the title and read the text quickly. Don't worry about the meaning of the underlined words. What is a procrastinator? In pairs, agree on a definition.

3 Study Active Reading and add the underlined words from the text to the lists below.

Adjectives: peckish, ...

ACTIVE READING |

The meaning of new words

When you find new words in a text:

- don't panic – often you don't need them to understand the main ideas of the text.
- decide what part of speech they are: a noun, a verb, an adjective, etc.
- read before and after the word and guess the meaning from the context.

Sometimes new words can be similar to words in your own language. That can help you understand them, but watch out for 'false friends'.

4 Read before and after the underlined words in the text and use the context to work out their meaning.

5 Read the phrasal verbs below. Use Active Reading to help you work out their meanings. Then choose the correct verbs to complete the sentences below.

be about to carry on check out clear up find out get on give up go back look for put off

- 1 When something is difficult, I give up / go back immediately.
- 2 I don't stop working when I'm tired. I carry on / look for until I finish what I'm doing.
- 3 It's better not to be about to / put off things until tomorrow if you can do them today.
- 4 If something is untidy, I prefer to clear it up / find it out immediately.
- 5 When I'm not sure about something, I go on the Internet to check it out / get on with it.

6 In pairs, say if the sentences in Exercise 5 are true for you.

I don't really agree with number 1. I don't give up easily.

7 SPEAKING In groups, look at these tips to help procrastinators and grade them from the most to the least useful. Can you add any more tips?

- 1  Make a plan.
- 2  Study with a friend.
- 3  Visit a psychologist.
- 4  Get up an hour earlier.
- 5  Change the place where you work.
- 6  Switch off your Internet connection.
- 7  Break up your work into smaller units.
- 8  Wait until the last minute and then work all night.

CONFESSIONS OF A PROCRASTINATOR

6.2

SUNDAY

I'm sitting for a History exam next Thursday. It's an important exam. I want to get a good mark. So, I know what I should do. I should revise for a few hours every day until I'm prepared.

I get out my History book. Tonight, I'm going to study the first moon landing. But I don't open the book. Instead, I switch on my computer and start playing Farplans. Time flies when you're having fun. I pick up my History book. It falls open at a chapter called 'The Marshall Plan'. That's it! I need a plan.

30 minutes later I have a great study plan. Now, all I need to do is to start studying. However, it's almost midnight, so I give up and go to bed.

MONDAY

My History book is open and I have a yellow highlighter in my hand. I'm ready to revise. I glance at my reflection in the window. 'I'm going to pass this exam,' I tell myself. Then I notice my hair is a mess. I need a haircut. So I go on social media and watch some hairstyle videos. I redo my study plan. I'm really going to work hard tomorrow.

TUESDAY

I'm going to revise for three hours. I'm about to start when I feel peckish, so I go to the kitchen to get a biscuit. I get some orange squash.

I carry on studying for a few minutes but then I need to go to the toilet. After that, I call my cousin Ramzi. He's sitting for the same exam as me. I ask how he's getting on. We talk for ages. Finally, I'm ready to start revising seriously. I can't find my notes in all the clutter on my desk. I should clear it up.

Three hours later my room is tidy. I'm exhausted. I fall into bed.

WEDNESDAY

I'm in a panic. I really don't want to fail this exam. My brother yells up the stairs, 'There's football on the telly in ten minutes!' He comes up to the landing. 'Jordan are playing England.' I ignore him. I can't watch football. I'm going to study all night.

THURSDAY

I studied until 4 a.m. I felt dreadful in the morning but I did the exam. I think I passed but I'm not sure.

I wonder why I always put off important things until the last moment. It's not sensible. It means I never do the things I have to do until panic makes me do them.

I want to change. Procrastination makes me miserable. I find a video called 'How to stop procrastinating'. I'm going to watch it.

But maybe not right now.

LESSON 3A GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY

Oh no! I look awful. Everyone's going to laugh at me.

Wow! I look amazing! Nobody's going to recognise me.

- 1 Look at the cartoons and say if the people are optimists or pessimists. Are you usually optimistic or pessimistic in these situations?

Future predictions: going to and will

- 2 Match sentences 1–2 with descriptions a–b. Then study the Grammar box and check your answer.

- 1 (Before the haircut) We'll look great at the graduation dinner.
2 (After the haircut) Everyone's going to laugh at me.

- a  a hope or a guess
b  a prediction based on evidence

Future predictions: going to and will

We can use both going to and will to make predictions about the future. Sometimes there isn't much difference, but ...

We use going to when there is clear evidence for a prediction. There is something we can see, hear or point to that shows our prediction is more than just an opinion.

We use will when there is no clear evidence for a prediction. We say what we believe, hope or calculate will happen. It is an opinion, a guess or a feeling. We often use expressions like I'm sure, I think and In my opinion before will and ask questions with Do you think you will ...? rather than Will you...?

I'm sure I'mad will pass his driving test.

Do you think you'll move to another country one day?

Grammar Reference > page 69

- 3 Complete the conversations with reasons a–d. Then in pairs, read the two exchanges.
- A <sup>1</sup>d It's going to rain.
B It won't rain. The weather will be fine. <sup>2</sup> _____
- A We're going to miss the train. <sup>3</sup> _____
B Don't worry, the train won't be on time. <sup>4</sup> _____
- a I believe it's usually late.
b In my opinion, it'll be sunny all day.
c It leaves in 15 minutes and the station is miles away.
d Look! There are black clouds in the sky.
- 4 SPEAKING In groups, talk about you and people you know using going to and will and the vocabulary from Exercise 3.
- A Are you going to look for a job or go to university when you leave school?
B I'm not sure but I think I'll probably go to university. You won't find a good job here if you don't.
C Do you think you'll work abroad one day?

Now go to Workbook page 6 for the next lesson.

LESSON 4A LISTENING AND VOCABULARY

- 1 Look at the photo. Is the glass half full, half empty or completely full? Discuss in pairs. Then go to page 75 and check. Are you an optimist, a pessimist or a realist?

- 2 6.3 You are going to listen to a talk about optimism and pessimism. In pairs, say if you think these statements are true or false. Then listen and check.

- 1  Identical twins have identical personalities.
- 2  Our personalities depend completely on our life experiences.
- 3  The children of happy parents tend to grow up to be optimistic.
- 4  There is nothing good about being a pessimist.
- 5  Optimists have healthier lives than pessimists.
- 6  Optimists tend to be more successful than pessimists.

- 3 6.4 Listen to the end of the talk and answer the questions.

- 1 Does the speaker think it's better to be an optimist or a pessimist?
- 2 What problems does she mention with people who are too optimistic?

- 4 6.5 DICTATION Listen to the joke from the talk again and write down what you hear.

- 5 Check you understand the highlighted verbs describing feelings.

- 1 I adore challenges.
- 2 I feel positive about life.
- 3 I hate being on my own.
- 4 I can't stand trying new things.
- 5 I often feel like jumping for joy.
- 6 I'm looking forward to leaving school and getting a job.
- 7 I don't care what happens to me in the future.
- 8 I feel excited about something that's going to happen in my life.

- 6 In pairs, say if the sentences from Exercise 5 are true for you. If they aren't, change them to make them true.
- 7 SPEAKING In pairs, use the ideas below to make predictions with will or going to. Then say if you think your partner is an optimist, a pessimist or a realist.
  - 1 finish the class early today
  - 2 enjoy yourself next weekend
  - 3 be sunny/wet next weekend

Now go to Workbook page 7 for the next lesson.

LESSON 5A VOCABULARY | Feelings and emotions

1 Look at the photos and try to guess what the people are like.

2 6.10 PRONUNCIATION Put the words from the box in the correct column. Listen and check. Then listen again and repeat.

beard eyebrow fair nice pale smile square straight toe

/ɪə/	/eɪ/	/aɪ/	/eə/	/aʊ/	/əʊ/
ear, beard	face	eye	hair	mouth	nose

3 6.11 Listen and match descriptions 1–8 with the people in the photos.

1 Ibrahim

4 THINK BACK Work in pairs. Student A, describe someone from the photos using the language from Exercise 2. Student B, guess which person your partner is describing. Then change roles.

5 Check you understand the adjectives for feelings and emotions in the yellow box. Then choose the best adjective for each person in the photos above.

amazed bored delighted beautiful disappointed excited exhausted frightened intense pleased relaxed stressed surprised worried

A I think Hisham looks relaxed.

B No, I don't agree. I think he looks bored.

6 Study Watch Out! and complete the sentences with correct adjectives formed from the verbs in bold.

1 I'm really bored. BORE

2 You look _____. What's the matter?
WORRY

3 I think it's really _____ to have a long bath.
RELAX

4 I was _____ the first time I saw a film in 3D.
AMAZE

WATCH OUT!

If a person, thing or situation is amazing, boring or exciting, we feel amazed, bored or excited:

I felt amazed when I saw that film. It was amazing.

7 SPEAKING In pairs, use the adjectives from Exercise 5 to talk about your feelings.

I feel stressed when I don't have time to study for a test.

Now go to Workbook page 8 for the next lesson.

LESSON 6A SPEAKING

1 In pairs, describe the photos. What is the girl doing in the second photo? How does she feel in both photos?

2 6.12 Listen to Part 1 of the story and decide if statements 1–6 are true or false.

- 1  Heba is looking forward to her driving test.
- 2  She doesn't need to sit the theory test.
- 3  Fadi is trying to be funny.
- 4  Heba drove into a tree during a driving lesson.
- 5  The weather forecast isn't great for tomorrow.
- 6  Heba enjoys driving in bad weather.

3 6.12 Study the Speaking box. Then listen to Part 1 of the story again and complete the sentences.

- 1 I'm sitting my driving test tomorrow morning and I don't think I'll pass.
- 2 I'll _____ stay away from the High Street tomorrow morning.
- 3 Don't worry about it, Heba. I'm _____ pass ... Well, _____ pass.
- 4 I'm sure I _____ pass. Something _____ go wrong. I _____ manage to start the car or _____ I'll drive into a tree.
- 5 You _____ won't drive into a tree. You _____ drive into a lamppost.
- 6 It _____ be sunny.
- 7 They say it'll _____ rain tomorrow. It's _____ there'll be a bad storm.
- 8 I'm _____ it'll be a complete disaster.

SPEAKING | Expressing probability

Very likely	You'll definitely win. You'll (almost) certainly win. I'm sure you'll win.
Likely	I think you'll win. You'll probably win.
Possible	Perhaps/Maybe you'll win. It's possible (that) you'll lose. You may/might lose. Perhaps/Maybe you won't win.
Unlikely	I don't think you'll win. You probably won't win.
Very unlikely	You definitely won't win. You (almost) certainly won't win. I'm sure you won't win.

4 6.13 In groups, say if you think Heba will pass or fail her driving test. Use phrases from the Speaking box. Then listen to Part 2 of the story and check.

A I don't think she'll pass.

B No, I don't agree. She might pass.

5 Research the probability of a type of weather happening in your local area over the next week. Make a short presentation to the class.

Graduation dinner

Hi girls

I graduate from college next Friday. I'm having a graduation dinner and I'd like you to come. It's going to be great fun. I'm inviting lots of friends including some other people from my college.

It's at my house at 8 p.m. The address is Flat 4C, 47 North Beach, Aqaba.

I can't remember if you've got my phone number but here it is in case you need to call me – 8-636-63646.

I really hope you can make it.

All the best,

Muna

Hi Muna

Thanks so much for inviting me to your graduation dinner. I'll definitely be there. Do I need to bring anything?

The only problem is I'm taking my driving test on Friday, so I might be a little late. I hope to have something to celebrate apart from your graduation!

Looking forward to seeing you on Friday.

Thanks,

Fadia

Hi Muna

I really appreciate the invitation to your graduation dinner. It's really nice of you but unfortunately, I won't be able to make it. I'm going to Amman with my family on Friday. We're going to see a play and we probably won't be back until very late.

Thanks anyway!

Best wishes,

R

LESSON 7A WRITING | An informal invitation

- 1 Study the Writing box and read emails 1–3. Is Muna's email a good invitation?

WRITING | An informal invitation

Making an invitation

- Make your invitation short and clear.
- Remember to:
  - give it a title,
  - give a place, date and time and contact details,
  - encourage people to accept it:

I'd like to invite you to ...
I'm having a graduation dinner on ...
Would you like to come?
Do you think you'll be able to come?
I'd like you to come.
I (really) hope you can make it.

Receiving an invitation

- Remember to say thank you (even if you decline the invitation):

Thanks (so much) for inviting me to ...
It was great/I was thrilled to get your invitation to ...
I really appreciate the invitation to ...
It's really nice of you.
- When you accept an invitation,
  - confirm you're coming:

(Of course,) I'll (definitely) be there/I'll come to ...
I'm delighted to accept your invitation.
(I'm) (really) looking forward to it.
  - check the arrangements:

What time are we meeting?
How are we getting there?
Do I need to bring anything?
- When you decline an invitation, give a reason and repeat your thanks:

I'd really love to come but .../It's really nice of you but ...
I'm really sorry but I'm afraid I can't make it.
Unfortunately, I won't be able to ...
Thanks anyway.

- 2 Look at emails 1–3 again and find examples of ...

- 1 an arrangement/definite plan with the Present Continuous I'm having a graduation dinner.
- 2 a prediction with going to
- 3 something that's sure with will
- 4 something that's possible with might
- 5 something that's probable with won't

- 3 REFLECT | Culture In groups, ask and answer the questions about events in Jordan.

- 1 Is it rude not to reply to an invitation? Say why.
- 2 Is it a problem to accept an invitation and then not turn up? Say why.
- 3 Should you always give a reason for declining an invitation?

- 4 In pairs, compare the invitation below with the advice in the Writing box. What's wrong with it? Rewrite the invitation to make it better.

Raed Alkhayyat yesterday at 23.59

Come to the best Beach Clean-up Day ever! It's next Saturday at the beach. We're inviting everyone! There's a lot of litter to pick up, so bring your gloves! We're having a picnic too. I'm going to provide all the food, so don't worry! Don't miss it, we need to help the environment!

Raed

- 5 WRITING TASK Follow the instructions to write an email inviting friends to your event.

 Use the Graphic Organiser to help you plan your writing.

- Decide where and when your event is.
- Decide what kind of event it's going to be and think of reasons to persuade your guests to come.
- Don't forget to put something in the subject box.

HOW DO YOU MANAGE YOUR TIME?

ADEL

1  When there is something I really need to do, like prepare for a big test, I try to save time and avoid distractions. For example, I simply turn off my phone. This way, I don't get messages that I think I have to read immediately, and I don't look at pictures my friends post online. These things can wait until I have some free time. Then I can work or study without thinking about anything else.

SANA

3  I used to be rather disorganised. I often left important tasks until the last minute and felt very stressed. So now, when I am busy, I usually make a list of things I have to do. At the top of the list I put the most important things which really can't wait, like schoolwork or buying a present for a friend's birthday. This really helps me to focus on what's most important. And I never forget to plan time for my hobbies because this is essential, too.

MAHA

2  There are a few things I do to manage my time. For example, I usually keep my work with me. So, if I have to wait somewhere or travel by bus, I can use this time to do some exercises or read a book for school. What really helps me, though, is using a calendar. I write the date when I must finish something and check that I do everything before that day.

1 In pairs, say how often these are true for you – often, sometimes or never.

- 1 I feel I don't have time for anything.
- 2 I do everything at the last moment.
- 3 I don't have time to rest.

2  6.14 Listen to a conversation between Kareem and Rashed and answer the questions.

- 1 Who do you think has better grades?
- 2 Who has more free time?
- 3 Who is more stressed?

3 In pairs, read the opinions about planning your time. Do you agree or disagree with them?

- 1 When we don't have a plan, we usually do nothing.
- 2 Planning takes too much time.
- 3 Good planning helps you to have more free time.

4 Read the forum entries opposite and match headings A-E with entries 1-3. There are two extra headings.

- A Don't plan your free time
- B Use a calendar to plan
- C Switch off social media
- D Never plan too much
- E Concentrate on the important things first

5  6.15 Listen to an expert talking about how to plan your day. Complete the advice below with the words and phrases from the box.

break energy every day important relax tick off

LIFE SKILLS | How to plan your time

- Be systematic – find time to plan <sup>1</sup>every day; it only takes about three minutes.
- Be realistic – write down only the tasks which you have the time and <sup>2</sup>_____ to complete.
- <sup>3</sup>_____ down larger tasks into smaller parts.
- Prioritise – decide which tasks are <sup>4</sup>_____ or urgent.
- Plan some time to <sup>5</sup>_____ too.
- <sup>6</sup>_____ tasks when they are finished and plan your next day.

6 Do the task below.

LIFE SKILLS | Project

- A For the next three days, prepare a to-do list each evening. Use the advice from this lesson to help you.
- B Make notes to answer the questions below:
- What things from your to-do list did you do?
  - Were there any tasks you didn't do? Say why.
  - Did you find the to-do list useful? Say why.
  - Are you planning to change anything about organising your time? If yes, what?
- C Prepare a short presentation to share your findings from point B with the class.

A job for life?

- VOCABULARY Work, jobs, personal qualities
GRAMMAR Present Perfect
LISTENING Future plans, dangerous jobs, volunteering
SPEAKING Describing photos
READING Jobs, volunteering, applications
WRITING A formal email of application
VIEWING AND PRESENTING Talking about somebody you admire

HAVE YOU HEARD THE NEWS?

- 1 Nader Have you heard? They've opened a big new sports shop outside town.
Jawad Yeah, I heard about that last week.
Nader They're looking for staff. You should apply for a job.
Jawad I've already applied. I sent in my application on Monday.
- 2 Nader Have you heard the news?
Khalil I don't know, what's happened?
Nader Jawad's found a job!
Khalil Really? Where?
Nader In that new sports shop. He started work yesterday.
Khalil Has Jawad ever worked in a shop?
Nader No, he hasn't. He's never had a proper job. It's his first one.
Khalil Is he at home? Can I talk to him?
Nader No, he's just left for work.
Khalil I'm really pleased! When's he going to take us to lunch?
Nader Hey, they haven't paid him yet! ... Have you found a job yet?
Khalil No, I haven't. I've had a few interviews but that's all.

Present Perfect (1)

1 Match sentences 1–2 with rules a–c. One of the sentences matches two rules.

1 Jawad's found a job!

2 He started work yesterday.

a  We use the Past Simple for past actions if we say when they happened.

b  We use the Present Perfect for news and recent activities.

c  We use the Present Perfect for past actions if we don't say exactly when they happened.

2 Study the Grammar box and check your answers to Exercise 1.

Present Perfect (1)

We use the Present Perfect for:

- news and recent activities
- finished actions in the past if we don't say exactly when they happened

	I • You • We • They	He • She • It
+	I've already started .	It's just gone .
-	They haven't finished yet.	She hasn't/has never been there.
?	Have you ever lied ? Yes, I have ./ No, I haven't .	Has she answered yet? Yes, she has ./ No, she hasn't .
Wh-?	What have we done ?	Who has he met ?

Time expressions: already, ever, just, never, yet

Grammar Reference > page 70

3 Find these words in the conversations. Are they in affirmative, negative or interrogative sentences?

already ever just never yet

4 7.1 Study Watch Out! and complete the conversation with the correct Past Simple or Present

Perfect forms of the verbs in brackets. Listen and check.

Jawad <sup>1</sup>Have you heard (you/hear) the news? Nader <sup>2</sup>_____ (just/leave) the country. He <sup>3</sup>_____ (fly) to Japan last night.

Jawad No, he hasn't, but he's looking. He <sup>6</sup>_____ (start) studying Japanese last month when he <sup>7</sup>_____ (lose) his job. He <sup>8</sup>_____ (already/learn) a lot.

Khalil <sup>9</sup>_____ (you/find) a new flatmate yet?

Jawad No, I haven't. I <sup>10</sup>_____ (not start) looking yet. Why?

Khalil Well, I <sup>11</sup>_____ (never/like) my flat and your flat is great, so ...

WATCH OUT!

We often use the Present Perfect to give general information and the Past Simple to give details:

I've had several job interviews. In fact, I had an interview yesterday.

With time expressions which refer to a finished period (yesterday, last week, in March, a year ago, etc.) we use the Past Simple, not the Present Perfect:

I had an interview yesterday. NOT I have had ...

5 Complete the sentences using already, ever, just, never and yet. Then in pairs, answer questions 1–2 and say if sentences 3–6 are true for you.

1 Have you ever had a part-time job?

2 Have you done your Maths homework _____?

3 I don't know what to do when I leave school. I haven't decided _____.

4 I've _____ decided what I want to do when I leave school. I'm going to be a doctor.

5 My mum has _____ started a new job. It was her first day yesterday.

6 I've _____ been to Japan but I'd like to go one day.

6 SPEAKING In pairs, make sentences using the Present Perfect and never. Guess if your partner's sentences are true or false.

A I've never been to Ireland.

B True.

A No, it's false. I have been to Ireland. I went to Dublin last year.

Now go to Workbook page 12 for the next lesson.

LESSON 2A GRAMMAR

1 Talal works at home, he's a self-employed web designer.

3 Fawzi works as a lifeguard at the beach.

2 Ali works in an office for a multinational company.

- 1 In pairs, look at the photos and say which job you would prefer to have and why.
I'd like to be a lifeguard. You don't get paid much but I love the sea.

Present Perfect (2)

- 2 7.2 Match sentences a–c with the people in the photos. Listen and check.

- a  I've been in Australia since November.
- b  I've loved Japan since I was a little kid.
- c  I'm my own boss but I haven't had a good break for weeks.

- 3 Study the Grammar box and Watch Out! and check your answers to Exercise 2.

Present Perfect (2)

We also use the Present Perfect to talk about situations that began in the past and continue now.

We often use since to say when the situation started or for to say how long this situation has been true.

In questions, we use How long to ask about duration.

Grammar Reference > page 70

WATCH OUT!

We don't use the Present Simple tense to talk about situations that began in the past and continue in the present:

I've worked here for four years. NOT I work here for four years.

- 4 7.2 Listen again and answer the questions using the Present Perfect and for or since. In pairs, check your answers.

- 1 How many jobs has Fawzi had since he left university?
He's had 4 jobs since he left university.
- 2 How long has Talal had his current job?
- 3 How long has Ali worked in Japan?
- 4 Has Ali had a holiday recently?
- 5 How long has Fawzi been away from Dubai?
- 6 How long has Fawzi been a lifeguard?

- 5 Rewrite the sentences with the Present Perfect and for, since or How long.

- 1 He lost his job in January.
He has been out of work since January.
- 2 I started working here four months ago.
- 3 How long ago did you become a teacher?

- 6 SPEAKING In pairs, ask and answer questions in the Present Perfect. Use How long, the prompts below and your own ideas.

be here study at this school have this English book mum/dad have his/her job

- A How long have you been here?
- B I've been here for 30 minutes.
- A I've been here since ten o'clock.

Now go to Workbook page 14 for the next lesson.

LESSON 3A LISTENING AND VOCABULARY

- 1 Make a list of dangerous jobs. In groups, say which three jobs you think are the most dangerous. Give reasons.

- 2 7.3 Study Active Listening. Then listen to Part 1 of a recording and choose the correct answers.

- 1 The speaker is
- presenting a radio programme.
  - teaching a class.
  - making a speech.
- 2 The speaker is talking about
- an accident she had.
  - statistics about dangerous jobs.
  - someone who died at work.

ACTIVE LISTENING |

Understanding the main idea

- It is important to understand the context.
- Don't try to understand every word.
- Listen for key phrases to help you understand the main points.

- 3 7.3 Listen again and complete the notes.

- Most dangerous job in the UK is not police officer, firefighter, <sup>1</sup>pilot or fisherman.
It's <sup>2</sup>_____.
- Farming statistics last year:
<sup>3</sup>_____ deaths accident rate: <sup>4</sup>_____ %
- 2nd most dangerous industry - <sup>5</sup>_____
- <sup>7</sup>_____ deaths in construction

- 4 7.4 Listen to Part 2 of the recording. Which of these things does Pat not talk about?

- why she became a truck driver
- how she feels when she's working
- her working conditions
- an accident she had

- 5 Check you understand these words and phrases for working conditions from the recording. Then use them to complete the text below.

boss career company co-workers earn full-time ~~part-time~~ pay(n) take care of working conditions working hours

I've got a <sup>1</sup>part-time job in a restaurant at the weekends. My <sup>2</sup>_____ is a really nice woman. She really <sup>3</sup>_____ the staff. And my <sup>4</sup>_____ are lots of fun. The problem is the <sup>5</sup>_____ is terrible. I don't <sup>6</sup>_____ enough money working part-time. I need a <sup>7</sup>_____ job. To be honest, I don't really want a <sup>8</sup>_____ in the restaurant business. The <sup>9</sup>_____ are really antisocial. I work from six to midnight. I'd love to join a multinational <sup>10</sup>_____ and get a job with better <sup>11</sup>_____ and the chance to travel.

- 6 SPEAKING Imagine you have a dangerous job. Study the questions below and think of your answers. Then in pairs, ask and answer the questions.

- How long have you had your job?
- What's it like? (working conditions, boss, co-workers)
- Do you ever feel afraid?
- Have you ever had an accident?

Now go to Workbook page 15 for the next lesson.

LESSON 4A VOCABULARY | Workplaces

ECONOMY

You can divide the economy into three sectors:

- Production of raw materials (finding and growing things)
INDUSTRIES: agriculture, fishing, forestry, mining, ...
WORKPLACES: farm, fishing boat, sawmill, oil platform, ...
- Processing (making things)
INDUSTRIES: construction, manufacturing, ...
WORKPLACES: factory, laboratory, ...
- Services (doing things for people)
INDUSTRIES: education, finance, health care, IT, sales, ...
WORKPLACES: library, office, doctor's surgery, design studio, department store, ...

- 1 Study the encyclopaedia entry and match the workplaces from the box below with the correct economy sectors. Can you think of any other workplaces for each sector?

ambulance bank building site corner shop fish farm food processing plant garage hair salon mine nursery

- 2 In pairs, say in which workplaces from Exercise 1 you would like/not like to work and why.

I wouldn't like to work in a mine. It's really hard work and I don't like enclosed spaces.

- 3 THINK BACK In groups, check you understand the jobs in the box. What other jobs can you think of?

bike courier building engineer car mechanic estate agent flight attendant hairdresser lawyer librarian nurse paramedic personal secretary politician receptionist sales manager shop assistant social worker surgeon tour guide

- 4 7.7 PRONUNCIATION Listen to the pronunciation of the words in the table.

•.	•..	..•.
agent	courier	assistant, mechanic, ...
..•.	•... librarian	..•.. paramedic

- 5 7.8 PRONUNCIATION Put the underlined words from the box in Exercise 3 in the correct column of the table above. Listen and check.

- 6 Look at the phrases in the box below which collocate with the verb work. In pairs, use them to talk about the jobs from Exercise 3.

as (a journalist) at night for (a big company) from home from 9 to 5 hard in a team in (an office) long hours part-time/full-time to a deadline under pressure

If you work as a surgeon, you often have to work at night.

- 7 In pairs, describe people you know. Use the collocations from Exercise 6.

My dad usually works in an office but he sometimes works from home. He works in a team and he often works long hours. He works for the government. He's a politician.

- 8 7.8 PRONUNCIATION Using the information from Exercise 7, make a short presentation on someone you admire to the class.

Now go to Workbook page 16 for the next lesson.

LESSON 5A SPEAKING

- 1 In groups, discuss the advantages of working on your own or as part of a team. Say which you prefer and why.

A I think working on your own allows you more freedom.

B I agree, but working in a team motivates you better.

- 2 7.9 Listen to Part 1 of a phone conversation and answer the questions.

- 1 Who is speaking?
- 2 Why does the woman have to describe the photos to the man?
- 3 Which poster is the woman describing?
- 4 Where does she think the people are?
- 5 What does the man think of the poster?

- 3 7.10 Study the Speaking box and look at the image below. Then complete sentences 1–4 with one or two words in each gap. Listen to Part 2 of the conversation and check.

- 1 It shows some young people in a boat.
- 2 In _____, you can see some trees.
- 3 They _____ be on a river or _____ it's a lake.
- 4 In the boat there are some big strong men – it's hard _____ how many but I think there are eight.

- Start by saying what the photo shows in general:
The photo shows a group of skydivers.
- Talk about what you can see in more detail. Use the following phrases to describe where things are:
In the foreground/centre/background/At the bottom/top/On the right/left there's some countryside and a town.
- Use the Present Perfect to say what has happened:
They've just jumped out of a plane.
and the Present Continuous to describe what people are doing:
They're falling down.
- Use these phrases to make guesses:
There might be 50 of them.
It's hard to say how many but I think there are ...
It looks like Britain or Ireland.
Perhaps/Maybe it's Scotland.
I think they're having fun.
They look/seem happy.
- Give your opinion on the photo:
It looks quite cool.
It's really/very colourful.
It's/It looks quite/really/very unusual.

LESSON 6A READING AND VOCABULARY

1 Look at the photo on page 23 and read the quote below the title. In groups, discuss what it means.

2 Read the title, the first and the last paragraph of the text and decide if statements 1–4 are true or false.

- 1  This text tells the personal experience of a volunteer worker.
- 2  It examines the reasons people do volunteer work.
- 3  It encourages the reader to try volunteer work.
- 4  It gives specific information on how to find a job in volunteer work.

3 Read the text and choose the correct answers.

- 1 The number of volunteers in the world today is
  - a about 65 million people.
  - b a quarter of the world's population.
  - c higher than it ever was in the past.
- 2 According to the text, volunteers often organise talks for
  - a money. b political organisations.
  - c non-governmental organisations.
- 3 The main reason that 'voluntourists' volunteer is that
  - a they want to learn a new language.
  - b they want to be different.
  - c they want to experience new situations.

4 Complete the questions with the correct forms of the verbs from the box. Then in groups, ask and answer the questions.

do find get make (x2) work

- 1 Are you good at working in a team?
- 2 Do you agree that ...
  - a it's easy to _____ friends when you work with people?
  - b if you work well, you should _____ paid well?
  - c the most important thing in life is to _____ a job you like?
  - d the most important thing in life is to _____ money?

- 3 Have you ever _____ any volunteer work?
  - a If so, when and where did you do it? What was it like?
  - b If not, would you like to do it? Say why. What kind of work would you like to do?

5 SPEAKING Work in pairs. Interview your partner using the questions below. Student A, go to page 75. Student B, go to page 75.

- 1 What's your name and where are you from?
- 2 What kind of volunteer work do you do?
- 3 How long have you had that position?
- 4 Do you get paid?
- 5 What do you like about the position?
- 6 What do you not like about it?
- 7 What are your plans for the future?

6 Find out information about one of these things. Then make a presentation about it in class.

TODAY IS

INTERNATIONAL VOLUNTEER DAY,

SO WE'RE ASKING THE QUESTION ...
HAVE YOU EVER WORKED FOR FREE?

VOLUNTEER

MORE POPULAR THAN BEFORE

Have you ever worked for nothing? I don't mean doing the dishes or studying. I mean, doing things you don't have to do without getting paid. If you have, you're not the only one. Volunteer work is more popular today than it's ever been before. A lot of people do it. In the US about 65 million citizens, that's over 25 percent of the population, do billions of hours of volunteer work every year: an average of about three hours per person per week. But why do people do it? Why do they work for free?

BECAUSE WE CARE

One reason is because they really care about something and want to work for an association that supports it. It could be any organisation. For example, many volunteers work with organisations to protect the environment. They spend their weekends planting trees, they organise talks to raise awareness about saving endangered animals or they set up websites for groups that encourage people to use bikes not cars.

PEOPLE HELP PEOPLE

Another reason people do unpaid work is to help others. They volunteer to make their communities better: they spend time with sick children in hospitals; they serve meals to the homeless; or they water the plants in neighbourhood gardens. Volunteers also help people overseas.

VOLUNTARY TOURISM

Recently, it has become common for young people to do voluntary work abroad. These 'voluntourists' teach languages, they work in hospitals or they help bring clean water to villages. They do it because they want to help others, they want to make a difference. But they also want to travel, to make friends and to challenge themselves in new, exciting and perhaps difficult situations. For instance, many people from around the world apply to volunteer for the Jordan Valley Excavation Project. They hope to use the work to find out about the world and also about themselves.

PART-TIME ICT HELP

required for small traditional office in central Amman

Experience preferred.

Must speak English.

Good pay and conditions.

Apply to Ms Dalia Alra'i at officeresolutions@gmail.com.

To: officeresolutions@gmail.com

Subject: Job application

Dear Ms Alra'i,

I'm writing to you to apply for the job as part-time ICT worker in your office.

I'm an 18-year-old student from Amman. Although I have no previous working experience, I have recently begun a course in Computer Repair and Maintenance at college. I've also just completed a course in coding, which I feel would be useful for a member of your staff. I've had my driving licence since March and I have a B1 level in English.

I consider myself to be a confident, enthusiastic person with an outgoing personality and a hopeful attitude.

I look forward to attending an interview and I hope to hear from you soon.

Kind regards,

Lubna Alghanem

LESSON 7A WRITING AND VOCABULARY |

A formal email of application

- 1 In pairs, read the job advert and Lubna's application email. In your opinion, is Lubna a good candidate for the job?
- 2 Study the Writing box. In pairs, say what is wrong with Jameel's email below.

From: rockyjm@gmail.com
To: dalia201@gmail.com Subject:

Hi Dalia

I see that you're looking for a waiter.

I have worked in many, many restaurants and I live in Amman! I have been on many courses in things like food hygiene, health and safety and some others that I can't remember now. I have recently taken part in the Amman Marathon! It was awesome!

I also studied English at school. Terrific! I got grade B in my exam – it was one of my favourite subjects and I have many happy memories.

Write back soon, OK?

All the best

Jameel "Rocky" Almohsen

- Say that you hope to receive a reply/would like to attend an interview:
I look forward to hearing from you/ attending an interview.
- Don't use emoticons, exclamation marks (!) or informal language, e.g. Hey, dude!
- Don't try to be funny or write irrelevant information, e.g. My friend Mustafa lives opposite your restaurant.

Formal beginning and ending

Remember to begin and end your email with formal greetings:

Dear + name, e.g. Dear Mr Madi, ... Dear Ms Haidar, ...

Dear Sir/Madam, ... (if you don't know the person's name)

(Kind/Best) regards, ...

- 3 Rewrite the email from Exercise 2 using the advice in the Writing box.
 Use the Graphic Organiser to help you plan your writing.
- 4 Check you understand the personal qualities in the box. Then in pairs, discuss which qualities are or are not important to you.

chatty cheerful confident creative diplomatic energetic enthusiastic fit good at accepting criticism/solving problems good at working in a team/group good with numbers/people hard-working healthy mature outgoing patient polite punctual reliable sociable smart strong

WRITING | A formal email of application

- In the subject box, give a clear reason for writing your email, e.g. Job application.
- In the first sentence, explain why you are writing:
I'm writing to you to apply for the job as/of ...
- Mention your age, education and any relevant work experience you have. You can use the Present Perfect to describe your experience and recent achievements:
I've just completed a course in first aid.
- Mention three or four of your personal qualities that you think are useful for the job:
I consider myself to be ...

- 5 REFLECT | Society Is it a good idea for students and high school pupils to volunteer at organisations? What are the advantages and disadvantages? Discuss in pairs.
It's a good way to meet people and build your confidence.
You might not have enough time to study and do coursework.

LESSON 1A VOCABULARY AND GRAMMAR

- 1  Make a short presentation about a famous Jordanian scientist. Can you name somebody without researching them first?
- 2 Match the scientists in pictures A–G with descriptions 1–7 below.
  - 1  A French chemist and biologist who gave his name to a process that kills microbes in food and drink.
  - 2  An American marine biologist and ecologist; she transformed the way we think about the environment.
  - 3  An Egyptian physicist who contributed to the development of Quantum theory and the theory of relativity.
  - 4  Born in Baghdad, this geologist and mathematician introduced Arabic numerals and the concepts of algebra to the world.
  - 5  An Arab engineer and inventor who has been described as the 'father of robotics' and modern day engineering.
  - 6  An Italian astronomer, mathematician, physicist and the 'father' of science.
  - 7  A Polish physicist and chemist – the only person to win two Nobel prizes in two different sciences.
- 3 What qualities do you need to be a scientist? Discuss in pairs. Then do the quiz and check your score on page 75. Do you agree with the results?

Verb patterns: the infinitive and the -ing form

- 4 Match sentences 1–3 with verb patterns a–c.
  - 1  I enjoy studying.
  - 2  You mustn't make guesses.
  - 3  I want to work outside.

a verb + to + infinitive
b verb + -ing form
c verb + infinitive without to
- 5 Study the Grammar box and Watch Out! Which verb patterns can you find in the quiz?

WATCH OUT!

After prepositions (e.g. after give up, keep on, think about, interested in) we use the -ing form: Keep on trying until you succeed.

Verb patterns: the infinitive and the -ing form

We use the -ing form after these verbs: avoid, can't stand, continue, (don't) mind, enjoy, finish, practise, stop

We use to + infinitive after these verbs: agree, decide, fail, hope, learn, manage, need, promise, try, want, would like

We can use either the -ing form or to + infinitive after these verbs: begin, hate, like, love, prefer, start

We use the infinitive without to after modal verbs, e.g.: can, could, might, must, should

THE UPS AND DOWNS OF SOCIAL MEDIA

Social networking apps have changed the way people communicate, but like most things in life they have their ups and their downs.

THE VALUE OF A DROP

Would you be able to read Arabic without any drops (or dots)? Probably not. But that's what a social media campaign asked people to try and do. The message was simple. "Don't underestimate the value of a drop" was written in Arabic without any drops, making it hard to understand.

This message was posted on billboards in Amman and across social media in Jordan. Companies across Jordan removed the drops (or dots) from their names and slogans as well. After three days, the message was fully revealed.

It turned out this message was part of a large water conservation campaign. It went viral and taught people practical ways of conserving water in Jordan. Studies showed that a quarter of people who saw this message checked their water stores.

FOMO – A MODERN ANXIETY

How often do you check your phone every day? 20, 50, 80 times? Surveys have shown that the average person checks their phone about 70 times a day. And you might not believe it but some people spend up to nine hours a day using social media or online video or music.

We all want to post comments, follow celebrities and know what's going on with our friends. Social media can make our lives full and exciting. However, research also shows a worrying trend. Some people can't stop checking their social media sites. They do it all the time – sometimes hundreds of times a day. Lots of us know that we look at our phones too often and try to control it. But when you really can't stop checking, it's a problem. It distracts us from other things and it can 15 make us stressed. Scientists have given this problem a name. It's called FOMO. This stands for Fear Of Missing Out! Three children in every classroom today may have this problem.

20 People who have FOMO feel they need to start and finish their day with social media updates. They have a real fear that they will miss something new, interesting or important. Perhaps a friend is doing something fun, a celebrity has talked about his new film or there's a funny video about a new food craze trending?

- 1 In groups, say which social media sites you use and what you use them for.
- 2 Read the article. Which text shows how social media can play a positive role and which shows how it can have a negative side?
- 3 Look at these sentences from the first part of the article. Which one is a fact and which an opinion? Study Active Reading and check your answer.
  - 1 The message was simple.
  - 2 After three days, the message was fully revealed.
- 5 Use the highlighted words for social media from the article to complete the statements below. Then in pairs, say if the statements are true for you.
  - 1 I would like to make an environmental video that goes viral but it isn't as easy as it seems.
  - 2 Lots of people _____ me on social media.
  - 3 My friend often turns up late for class because she checks her phone for social media _____ at break time.
- 6 Find these phrasal verbs in the article. Then use their correct forms to complete the sentences below.

ACTIVE READING |

Telling facts from opinions

- A fact is something that you can check and prove to be true.
- Facts often include numbers, but not every statement with a number is a fact.
- An opinion is what someone believes or feels about something. You can agree with it or not.
- To give opinions, we often use adjectives like great, terrible, simple, etc., adverbs like probably and possibly, and verbs like feel, think, seem, etc.

- 4 Decide if these sentences are facts or opinions. Use Active Reading to help you. Then find more facts and opinions in the article.
  - 1 A quarter of people who saw the message checked their water stores. fact
  - 2 People often worry they are missing out on things.
  - 3 Some people spend up to nine hours a day on social sites.

- 2 Which tense follows if?
- 3 Which tense is in the other part of the sentence?

4 Study the Grammar box and Watch Out! and find more examples of the first conditional in the conversation.

The first conditional

We use the first conditional to talk about a realistic situation that will/might happen in the future.

There are two parts to a sentence in the first conditional:

The condition	The result
If + Present Simple,	will + infinitive
If you press this button,	you will switch the phone off.

OUR SOCIETY IS TOO DEPENDENT ON TECHNOLOGY. DO YOU AGREE?

- 1 Look around you. What do you see? Electric lights, motorised transport and electronic devices. Technology is everywhere nowadays, but are we too dependent on it? In my opinion, we are.
  - 2 I am not suggesting we should live without technology. After all, it makes our lives more efficient, comfortable and fun. Firstly, housework and travel take up less time. Secondly, it entertains us and heats and lights our homes. And finally, it helps us study, contact friends and keep up with the news.
  - 3 However, very often, we use technology without thinking. We drive to the shops
- when it is only a five-minute walk; we play sports on screens instead of going to the park; we chat online rather than meeting friends face to face; we sit at lunch staring at our phones when we could be chatting. It seems to me that technology is making us less sociable. In addition, it is bad for our health.
- 4 To sum up, we live in an age of technology. In many ways, it makes our lives better. But too much technology can make us unhappy and unhealthy. So, I believe we should try to use technology less in order to enjoy life more.

- 1 In groups, agree on three items of technology you need the most.

I really need my phone. I do so many things on it.

- 2 Look at the first paragraph of the essay. Which sentence restates the essay question?

- 3 Look at the essay again and match paragraphs 1–4 with their functions a–d below. Then study the Writing box and check.

4 Read the biographies of three successful people below. Match texts A-C with questions 1-5. Each question can be matched with one or two texts.

Which person ...

- 1 chose a career related to something they liked to do as a child?
- 2 edits a newspaper?
- 3 received many awards?
- 4 was not discouraged in spite of difficulties?
- 5 has well-known businesses in Jordan?

ROADS TO SUCCESS

A At university in the UK he worked as an actor on BBC radio because he had a good voice. He returned to Jordan and joined the Jordanian National Theatre Group. Eventually he was given his own television programme. Now he is extremely famous and has won several awards.

B She has always been interested in helping children. She worked at children's schools and as an editor for the children's part of Al-Dustour Newspaper. She has always loved writing ever since she was young, and now has published many different children's books. She loves to write books full of different stories and has become very famous in Jordan for her many series of children's books.

She has received many awards for her writing including the shield of the Royal Jordanian Air Force.

C As a child, he had original and unusual ideas and was interested in electronics. He went to college to study Law, but was not really sure what he wanted to do. Soon, he quit and instead began attending different courses he found interesting, such as Art and Calligraphy. When he was just 20, together with a friend, he built his first computer in his family's garage. They started a new company, which became quite successful. However, success did not last long and after some time he lost his job as the director of the company. He was a bit upset to begin with, but after some time he decided to continue doing what he loved and opened two new technology companies. These companies have later become two of the best known and successful businesses in Jordan.

5 Do the task below.

LIFE SKILLS | Project

A Choose one of the jobs your partner suggested for you in Exercise 3. Use the Internet to find more information about it. Complete the diagram below.

B In small groups, share your findings. Explain why the job is suitable for you. Does your group agree? Say why.

TERI HORTON WITH HER PAINTING

A GOOD CHOICE

ART RICHES SURPRISING STORIES FROM THE WORLD OF ART

A WOMAN BOUGHT A PAINTING THAT COULD BE WORTH $50 MILLION FOR $5. HOW DID SHE DO IT?

One day a 73-year-old American called Teri Horton saw a large colourful painting in a California thrift shop*. She had never bought such a big painting before but she liked the colours and thought it would be a fun present for a friend who was depressed, so she bought it for $5. (The shop assistant had asked for $8 but Teri was good at bargaining.) After she had bought it, she took it to her friend's house. The friend, however, didn't like the painting, and anyway, they hadn't managed to get it through the door and into her home, so Teri decided to sell it at a yard sale**. A local Art teacher saw it and thought it looked familiar. Had a famous artist painted it? Teri didn't know. Before she retired, she'd worked as a truck driver and she was no art expert. But she soon found out that the painting was in the style of a world-famous abstract artist who had died in 1956 and whose paintings sell for millions. Unfortunately, nobody had signed the painting and some experts claimed it wasn't authentic. However, after an expert had found a fingerprint on the painting that seemed to be from a world-famous abstract artist, a buyer offered her $9 million. She turned it down. She says she won't sell it for less than $50 million.

* In the US, a thrift shop is like a charity shop in the UK.

** In a yard sale, you sell some of your things in front of your house. It's common in the US.

LESSON 1A VOCABULARY AND GRAMMAR

1 In pairs, describe the painting behind Teri Horton using the adjectives from the box. What do you think it shows? Read the text. Then ask and answer the questions below.

bright cheerful colourful depressing gloomy imaginative irritating original scary thought-provoking unsophisticated

- 1 When (and why) did you last go to an art gallery? What did you see? Did you enjoy it?
- 2 What do you think of modern art?

Past Perfect

2 Read the text again. For each pair of sentences, tick the thing that happened first.

- 1  a Teri bought the painting for $5.
 b The shop assistant had asked for $8.
- 2  a Teri decided to sell the painting.
 b They hadn't managed to get the painting inside the friend's house.
- 3  a An expert had found a fingerprint on the painting.
 b Someone offered $9 million for the painting.

3 Study the Grammar box and find more examples of the Past Perfect in the text.

Past Perfect

We use the Past Perfect to talk about an action in the past that was completed before another action or a time in the past. We often contrast an action in the Past Simple (e.g. realised) with an earlier one in the Past Perfect (e.g. had left).

When I got home, I realised that I had left my phone in the taxi.

- + I had finished.
 - They hadn't started.
 ? Had he gone? Yes, he had./No, he hadn't.

Wh-? Where had she gone?

Linkers: after, already, as soon as, before, by, by the time, once, until 4 Read the caption for the photo. Then in pairs, think of possible answers to the question. Do Exercise 5 and check.

Seven-year-old Kieron Williamson made £150,000. How did he do it?

5  9.1 Complete the text with the Past Perfect of the verbs in brackets. Listen and check.

6 Complete the sentences with the correct forms of the verbs in brackets.

- 1 When the artist died (die) at the age of 68, he _____ (create) many pieces of art based on the deserts of Jordan.
- 2 After he and his friend _____ (have) an argument, he felt bad and _____ (apologise).
- 3 By the time he _____ (be) a student, Mahmoud _____ (already/decide) to become an artist.
- 4 She _____ (spend) many years alone in her room after she _____ (have) a serious traffic accident at the age of 18.

7 SPEAKING In pairs, tell stories about art from your life. Use the linkers in the Grammar box and include at least one example of the Past Perfect.

When I was younger, my grandmother asked me to paint a picture. As soon as I finished the painting, I realised I'd painted all over her expensive dining table. My grandmother had left the room but when she came back, she ...

Now go to Workbook page 28 for the next lesson.

Creative jobs: artist, actor, photographer ...

A Yasser Al-Massri

B He was a famous TV actor.

A Yes, but he was also a theatre actor.

- 2 In pairs, match the creative jobs from the box with: a) film, b) theatre or c) music. Sometimes more than one answer is possible. Which job do you think is the easiest and which is the most difficult?

camera operator    composer conductor    director    extra lighting technician    playwright screenwriter    songwriter sound engineer    stage manager stunt performer

- 3 Check you understand the highlighted words and phrases. In pairs, read the clues and identify the creative jobs they describe.

- 1 I need to remember my lines. I work on TV but I prefer doing plays in front of a real audience in the theatre. I'd love to play a good part in a film. actor/actress
- 2 I make most of my money from playing concerts, not selling albums. I play an instrument in a traditional folk band.

- 3 I usually work on a stage in a theatre. When I stand behind the curtain just before a live performance, I always feel nervous. I'm scared I might forget my lines.

- 4 Study Watch Out! Then in pairs, make true sentences with the words from the box.

act   draw   explain things   paint play instruments   remember things speak clearly   take photos/selfies talk to people   tell people what to do

I think I'm good at acting but I'm terrible at painting.

WATCH OUT!

You can say that you are good, not very good or terrible at something:

*I'm good at Science, I'm not very good at sport.
 I'm terrible at Art.*

But if you use a verb after good at/bad at, you have to add -ing:

I'm good at painting. I'm not very good at drawing. I'm terrible at acting.

- 5 Make a short presentation to the class using the information about your partner you found out in Exercise 4.

Now go to Workbook page 30 for the next lesson.

LESSON 3A GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY

- 1 In pairs, talk about your favourite TV programme using the types of TV programme from the box. Why do you like it?

cartoon chat show documentary drama series game show quiz show reality TV sitcom sketch show soap
the news

A My favourite TV programme is on Channel 1 at eight o'clock four nights a week. It's called The South.

B How long is each episode?

- 2 Look at the photo below. What kind of programme is The South?

Jameela and Manal are in for a surprise. Watch The South Thursday at 8.

Reported speech

- 3 Read sentences 1–2 and answer questions a–b. You can use the Grammar box to help you.

1 'I'm fed up!'

2 Jameela told Manal she was fed up.

a Which is a quote and which is a report?

b How is the verb form in the report different from the one in the quote?

Reported speech

Direct speech

Present Simple

(is/are – do/does) →

Present Continuous

(am/are/is doing) →

Reported speech

Past Simple (was/were – did)

Past Continuous (was/were doing)

Present Perfect

(has/have done) → Past Perfect (had done)

Past Simple (did) → Past Perfect (had done)

will (will do) → would (would do)

can (can do) → could (could do)

Time expressions also change: yesterday

→ the day before; the last time → the time before; tomorrow → the day after

Grammar Reference > page 72

WATCH OUT!

I said that I didn't want to watch that programme.

I told her/Malak that I didn't want to watch that programme.

- 4 Study the Watch Out! box and report these quotes from The South. Use tell if you know who the speaker is talking to.

This week's best lines from The South

1 'I'm your mother, you're my son, we're family.'
(Sawsan to Ziad)

Sawsan told Ziad that she ...

2 'I can't take it anymore.' (Khaled)

3 'Malak's looking for you.' (Muneer to Raed)

4 'I've made a decision.' (Sami)

5 'We'll keep on trying, we won't give up.'
(Fadia)

6 'Jaber took out the recycling and then left.'
(Noura to Lama)

7 'You have no idea what you're talking about.'
(Laila to Hussein)

8 'I don't like talking about other people but I've heard some news.'
(Amina to Nadia)

- 5 SPEAKING In pairs, report a conversation either from your life or from a TV programme that you watch. Use reported speech.

Now go to Workbook page 31 for the next lesson.

I can use say, tell and ask to report conversations.

LESSON 4A READING AND VOCABULARY

1 In pairs, ask and answer the questions.

- 1 What is your favourite musical instrument?
- 2 Can you play an instrument? If not, would you like to learn?
- 3 Have you ever performed in public? If so, what was it like? If not, why not?

How to succeed as a classical musician

What does it take to be a top classical musician? It helps when you win a prestigious national competition, and it also helps when you are part of a family of talented musicians.

5 This is true of Sheku Kanneh-Mason, one of the most gifted classical musicians in the UK today.

In 2016, Sheku Kanneh-Mason was just 17 years old when he won the BBC Young Musician of the Year award. Sheku plays 10 the cello, and is one of a family of amazing musicians. He is the third oldest of six brothers and sisters who all play instruments to a high level, and in 2019, they even performed
15 together in a concert for members of the British royal family. They have also recorded classical music albums together, presented a radio series talking about their favourite classical music, played in some of the world's best concert halls and twice performed for the 20 British Academy Film Awards (BAFTAS).

Sheku is the most famous of the family, however, after playing as a soloist at a royal wedding in 2018, a performance that was watched by an audience of around two billion 25 people around the world. In 2020, he became the first cellist to reach the top ten best selling albums in the UK. Sheku said that he was really happy to hear that many of his young fans are learning the cello because of this.

30 Sheku started playing the cello at the age of six, and went to secondary school in Nottingham, where his family lived. He went on to study at the Royal Academy of Music in London. In 2018, he donated £3,000, that's 35 about 2,780 JOD, to his former school so that ten students could continue their cello lessons.

His brothers and sisters have also been very successful. Sheku's brother Braimah plays violin for a very successful pop group. His sister 40 Konya has twice played the piano to members of the British royal family, while his other sister Isata has released a classical music album with Sheku. All his other brothers and sisters have also played in orchestras and won many music 45 awards.

Sheku is an amazing talent, but life has not always been easy for him. Like all top musicians, to be so successful, he has had to rehearse 50 the cello for hours every day, and when he was 12, he was diagnosed with diabetes. Today he works as a global ambassador for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. As a result, both his charity work and his music can really make a difference to 55 young people's lives.

LESSON 5A SPEAKING

-  1  9.3 Listen to Part 1 of the story. In pairs, use reported speech to report Talal's message to Suleiman.

Talal called Suleiman and left a message. He said ...

-  2  9.4 Listen to Part 2 and follow the instructions.

- Say what a) Muneer, b) Mum and c) Laith invite Talal to do.
- Say what reasons he gives for turning them down.

- 3 Study the Speaking box. Which expressions are not in the conversations?

SPEAKING | Informal invitations

Making invitations

Do you want to ...?
 Would you like to ...?
 Do you fancy ...-ing?
 How about ...?

Accepting invitations

Sure, that sounds good/like a good idea.
 Yes, I'd love to. Where shall we meet?
 What a great idea! What time?
 That's very kind of you, thanks.

Turning down invitations

No, thanks.
 Thanks but ...
 No, I'm sorry, I can't.
 I'd love to but ...
 That sounds great/like a lot of fun but ...
 Maybe some other time.

Giving reasons

I don't really fancy it, to be honest.
 I'm not really into ...
 It's not my cup of tea.
 I don't feel like ...-ing.
 I've got other plans.
 I've got to ...

- 4  9.5 What do you think will happen when Suleiman calls Talal? Listen to Part 3 and check.

- 5  9.6 Complete the sentences with phrases from the Speaking box. Listen and check.

Talal <sup>1</sup>Do you want to go to the cinema this evening?

Talal Yeah, sure.

Suleiman There's an exhibition at the Art Gallery. <sup>4</sup>_____ going on Sunday?

Talal That <sup>5</sup>_____ a great idea. I'd <sup>6</sup>_____.

- 6  9.7 PRONUNCIATION Read the information below. Then listen and repeat the questions with the correct intonation.

With yes/no questions, our intonation often rises, e.g.

Do you want ↗ to come?

With wh- questions, our intonation often falls, e.g. What's ↘ up?

Aqua Kaleidoscope The Petra Museum

Amazing Nabataean Water Engineering

This wonderful exhibition is really interesting! It explores the mysteries of Nabataean water engineering techniques using exhibits of water pipes excavated from Petra and reconstructed using state-of-the-art digital 3D images. You can learn all about the people who built Petra, the Nabataeans; skillful nomadic tribes with hydraulic engineering and other clever water management technologies.

B Nabati Poetry Saadiyat Cultural District Abu Dhabi

A beautiful form of poetry

Originating among the Bedouin of the Arabian Peninsula and distinguished by its use of colloquial Arabic, rather than the formal Arabic found in most contemporary writing and classical Arabic is Nabati poetry. I found the language of Nabati poetry to be simple, clear and direct. However, personally, I prefer a more formal approach to poetry.

C Oliver Twist Savoy Theatre

The magic has gone

If you're a history fan like me, and if you like Charles Dickens books, then please do yourself a favour and stay well away from this dreadful play. The actors try hard but the dialogues are dull, the plot does not match the book and the whole thing goes on for far too long – almost three hours. Don't waste your time or your money.

1 How do you find out if a book/film/play/TV programme/exhibition/album/concert is good or not? Discuss in pairs.

2 Look at the posters. In pairs, say which event you would/wouldn't like to go to and why.

A I'd like to go to the Nabati Poetry event because I'm really into different forms of poetry.

B I wouldn't like to go to the play because I find historical plays boring.

3 Read the reviews and match them with the number of stars you think the reviewer gave each event. Justify your opinion.

4 Study the Writing box. Then find the expressions from the box in the reviews.

WRITING | A short review

- Start with a heading that indicates your opinion and if possible, mark the number of stars (★★★★★) you think the event deserves.
- You can make some personal comments:
I'd never heard of ... before but ...
A friend told me it was ...
I was looking forward to going to ... but ...
I'm a big fan of ...
- Give some factual details:
It's the group's third album.
The exhibition is on at ... until ...
It opens at 10 a.m.
This is ...'s second novel.
You can listen to it for free on ...
It's a murder mystery.
- Give your opinion:
  - positive comments: totally brilliant, really good, I loved it, I enjoyed it
  - fifty-fifty comments: quite good, not bad, alright, OK
  - negative comments: absolutely awful, really bad, very boring
  - comparisons: not as good as, the best thing they've done, I don't like it as much as ..., slightly better, even worse
- Justify your opinion:
It was a waste of money – the sound was terrible and they only played for 40 minutes.
- Give recommendations:
You should/shouldn't ...
It's worth ... -ing
I recommend it.
Go and see it.
Don't miss it.
Forget about it.
Don't waste your time or money on ...

5 Study Watch Out! Which adverb can you use with both normal and strong adjectives?

WATCH OUT!

Normal adjectives Strong adjectives

good	brilliant/awesome
bad	awful/pathetic
silly	ridiculous
funny	hilarious
interesting	fascinating
surprising	amazing
scary	terrifying

We usually modify normal adjectives with the adverbs very, really or quite, and strong adjectives with the adverbs absolutely, really or totally:

It's very good.

It's absolutely brilliant.

6 In pairs, talk about artists, groups, TV programmes, etc. that you know. Use the adjectives and adverbs in Watch Out!

A I saw a new superhero movie last night.

B What's it like?

A It's really funny. It's totally brilliant. I loved it.

7 WRITING TASK Write a review of a film, TV programme, book, exhibition, etc. Use the Writing box and Watch Out! to help you.

 Use the Graphic Organiser for this unit to help you plan your writing.

Was Sherlock Holmes the first fictional detective?

Sherlock Holmes is the most famous detective in fiction. He was created in 1887 by British author Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, who wrote four novels and 56 short stories involving Holmes and his partner, Doctor Watson. Since then over 120 authors have written Sherlock Holmes stories.

The London detective has also starred in more than 200 films and has been played by over 70 actors. There have been Sherlock theatre and radio plays, TV programmes, children's cartoons, comics and video games. Even the word 'Sherlock' is used for someone who makes brilliant deductions.

But Sherlock wasn't the first fictional detective. That honour belongs to Edgar Allan Poe's creation C. Auguste Dupin. Holmes' first case, 'A Study in Scarlet,' wasn't written until 46 years after Poe's 1841 story 'The Murders in the Rue Morgue'. In fact, Dupin was created before the word 'detective' even existed.

Another inspiration might be Maximilien Heller. It is not known if Doyle read this 1871 novel by Henry Cauvain, but like Holmes, Heller was a brilliant private detective who used science and logic to find clues and solve crimes, puzzles and mysteries. Also, like Holmes', his adventures were narrated by a doctor. Was Holmes based on Heller? Perhaps. Make your own deductions.

LESSON 1A VOCABULARY AND GRAMMAR

1 What do you know about Sherlock Holmes?

- What nationality is he?
- In which city does he live and work?
- What's the name of the man he works with?

2 Read the text. Then in pairs, answer the questions.

- Who wrote the Sherlock Holmes stories?
- When can we call someone 'Sherlock'?
- Who was the first fictional detective?
- What are the similarities between Sherlock Holmes and Maximilien Heller?

The passive

3 Look at the pairs of sentences 1–3 and answer questions a–c below.

1

Active: People use the word 'Sherlock' for someone who makes deductions.

Passive: The word 'Sherlock' is used (by people) for someone who makes deductions.

Active: Arthur Conan Doyle created Sherlock Holmes.

Passive: Sherlock Holmes was created by Arthur Conan Doyle.

Active: Over 70 actors have played Sherlock Holmes.

Passive: Sherlock Holmes has been played by over 70 actors.

- Do both sentences in each pair have the same meaning?
- What is more important in active sentences – what someone does or who does it?
- What is more important in passive sentences – what someone does or who does it?

4 Find more examples of the passive in the text. How do we form the passive in these tenses? Study the Grammar box and check your answers.

- the Present Simple
- the Past Simple
- the Present Perfect

The passive

We use the passive when the action is more important than the people who do it. We often use the word by before the person who does the action.

We form the passive with the verb to be and the past participle:

Some problems are not solved by yourself. (Present Simple)

Why were they arrested (by the police)? (Past Simple)

A man has been attacked by a swarm of bees. (Present Perfect)

Grammar Reference > page 73

5 10.1 Complete the sentences with the correct passive forms of the verbs in brackets. Then listen to check and to answer questions 2, 3 and 5.

Present Simple

- The novels are written (write) in a clear, easy-to-read style.
- Where _____ (the novels/set)?

Present Perfect

- How many novels _____ (publish) so far?
- The series _____ (not make) into a film but it _____ (adapt) for television.

Past Simple

- When _____ (the TV programme/produce)?
- A second season _____ (plan) but it _____ (never/film).

6 Rewrite the sentences in the passive beginning with the words given.

- The author has never confused me.
I've never been confused.
- Detective stories fascinate me.
I'm _____
- Someone borrowed my book without asking.
My book _____
- In my opinion, they don't publish enough detective stories.
In my opinion, detective stories _____

7 SPEAKING In pairs, ask and answer questions about the passive sentences in Exercise 6.

- Have you ever met a detective?*
- No, of course not. Are you fascinated by detective stories?*

Now go to Workbook page 36 for the next lesson.

LESSON 2A VOCABULARY | Doing the right thing

1 SPEAKING In groups, ask and answer the questions.

- 1 How many people do you help each day?
- 2 How do you think we can help others more?

2 Match the act of kindness in the table with photos A-E.

Acts of kindness

- help with homework
- return lost property
- give away food
- work for a charity
- give directions

3 Complete the sentences with phrases from the table in Exercise 2. You may need to change the tense. Use a dictionary to help you with any words you are unsure of.

- 1 A friend notices you are struggling with maths. They offer to help you with your homework.
- 2 I was lost in a city I hadn't been to before. Fortunately, a kind family _____.
- 3 My little brother was hungry after sports practice. We were so touched when we heard his friends _____ to him.
- 4 I'm so proud of my best friend. Every month she gives back to the community by _____.
- 5 I was so upset when I left my phone on the bus. Fortunately, they have an easy way of _____.

Now go to Workbook page 38 for the next lesson.

- 1 In pairs, talk about who your heroes are.
  - 1 Are they real or fictional?
  - 2 What special skills do they have?
  - 3 Who is your favourite hero in a film? What did you think of them?
- 2 In pairs, complete the sentences with the words from the box. Use a dictionary to help you.

crime fighters ~~innocent~~ justice system others save villains

- 1 The opposite of 'guilty' is innocent.
- 2 Not all superhero film characters are ____; some of them are bad guys.
- 3 Another word for bad guys is ____.
- 4 Police officers, lawyers and judges work in the ____.
- 5 People who work for charities spend their time helping ____.
- 6 The emergency services ____ us from danger.

- 3 10.2 Listen to a radio programme and choose the correct answers.

- 1 Mazen says that superheroes
  - a are less popular now than they were in the 1930s.
  - b tend to be unpopular when society has problems.
  - c are more popular now than they were in the 1930s.
- 2 What, according to Rola, is the problem with superheroes?
  - a They take the law into their own hands.
  - b They make the police look bad.
  - c They sometimes accidentally hurt innocent people.
- 3 What reason does Mazen give for the popularity of superhero films?
  - a They use modern technology.
  - b You can watch them on computers.
  - c They are a chance to escape from real life.

- 4 SPEAKING In pairs, ask and answer the questions. Justify your answers.
  - 1 Which superpower(s) would you like to have?
  - 2 Are superhero comic books and films relevant to our lives?
  - 3 Are real-life superheroes fantastic or ridiculous?
- 5 REFLECT | Society What should you do/not do if you see somebody who needs help? Discuss in groups.
- 6 In pairs, discuss a time you did something brave. Present the story to the class.

Now go to Workbook page 39 for the next lesson.

ETHICS

BEING THE BEST PERSON YOU CAN BE

What would you do if you were in these situations?

- 1 If I saw an old woman who was trying to cross the road, I would ...
- 2 If I found somebody's wallet with their address in it, I would ...
- 3 If a family member was in hospital and their baby needed care, I would ...

LESSON 4A GRAMMAR

- 1 Look at the photo at the top of the page and read the question. Which situation does the photo correspond to?

- 2 10.5 Listen to a conversation and say which answers Ali and Hassan give to questions in a questionnaire.

Ali
Hassan

- 3 Answer the questions in pairs.

The second conditional

- 4 Study the Grammar box and Watch Out! and in pairs create two statements using the second conditional.

The second conditional

We use the second conditional to talk about:

- things that are unlikely or impossible to happen in the future (fantasies, unreal plans):
If I won first prize, I 'd be overjoyed.
(but I almost certainly won't win first prize)
- unreal situations in the present:
What would you do if you were me?
(but you're not me)

There are two parts to a sentence in the second conditional:

The condition

If + Past Simple,

The result

would + infinitive

If I saw someone fall, I would help them up.

Grammar Reference > page 73

WATCH OUT!

With the second conditional, we often use were instead of was after I, he, she and it, especially in written English or formal situations:

I would help your brother if I were you.

If it weren't so difficult, I'd do it.

- 5 Complete the chain of sentences with the correct tense of the verbs in brackets. Then in pairs, make other chains from the sentence beginnings below.

1 If someone helped (help) me, I _____ (buy) them a gift.

If you _____ (buy) them a gift, the person _____ (feel) embarrassed.

If the person _____ (feel) embarrassed, I ...

2 If I found a lot of money in the street, ...

3 If I heard somebody crying, ...

4 If I saw a lot of litter on the floor, ...

Now go to Workbook page 40 for the next lesson.

1 In pairs, describe the photo. Who do you think the person is and what is happening?

A I think the person has had an accident.

B No, I don't agree. I think ...

2 10.6 Listen to the conversation and decide if statements 1–4 are true or false.

- 1  The ambulance driver is questioning Zeinab about an accident.
- 2  Zeinab complains about the poor lighting in her school.
- 3  Zeinab wants advice on how to avoid future accidents.
- 4  Someone broke their leg falling recently.

3 10.7 Study the Speaking box and complete the sentences with 1–3 words in each gap. Listen and check.

- 1 Have you any tips on what I could do to feel safer?
- 2 Listen, it's _____ to watch where you are walking.

5 10.9 PRONUNCIATION Say the sentences. Then listen and check.

- 1 Nurses are calm when they talk.
- 2 There's no doubt that she's unconscious.
- 3 Could you fasten your seat belt, please?
- 4 I don't know what to write on the sign.
- 5 The workers didn't look in the cupboard.

6 In groups, ask for and give advice for these situations.

- 1 I found out that my best friend goes cycling without a helmet. I told him to stop but he won't.
- 2 My little brother needs to be kinder. He doesn't notice when people are upset.
- 3 I'm thinking of joining the police force.

LESSON 6A READING AND VOCABULARY

- 1 In pairs, look at the photo on page 55. You are going to read a story involving the two people. What do you think it will be about?
- 2 The story on page 55 was written for a competition for young writers in Amman. In pairs, discuss what you would write a story about. Would you prefer to write about people doing good or bad things?
- 3 Read the story quickly. In pairs, say what it is about. Did you find the ending surprising?
- 4 Study Active Reading and choose the correct answer to question 1. Use the underlined key words to help you. Then say which words from the story helped you answer the question.
  - 1 We learn that Fawzi's park
    - a had a litter problem at the beginning of the story.
    - b was in a very big city.
    - c didn't have a litter problem at the end of the story.
- 5 Read the story again and choose the correct answers to questions 2–4.
  - 2 Fawzi tells the man that
    - a he enjoys working in the café.
    - b he doesn't like him.
    - c it's bad for the park and the animals.
  - 3 The man told Fawzi it didn't matter because
    - a it will help keep the park clean.
    - b everyone did it.
    - c every piece of litter adds up.
  - 4 The man went back to the park to
    - a pick up litter.
    - b speak to Fawzi.
    - c water the flowers.
- 6 REFLECT | Values In groups of three, ask and answer the questions.
  - 1 Do you think this story deserved to win the competition?
  - 2 Should people who drop litter be told to pick it up?

ACTIVE READING |

Finding specific information

- Read the text quickly to get the main idea of what it is about.
- Read each question carefully and find the key words in it.
- Look for the key words or similar ideas in the text.
- Read before and after the key words to find the answer to the question.

Every little bit helps

10.10

In a busy part of London, there lived a man named Fawzi. Fawzi was an ordinary man. He worked at a small café, where he served coffee and pastries to many different people. He was friendly and always had a smile on his face. But what made Fawzi special was his love for the environment. He worked hard to keep the park near his café clean and green.

Every morning, Fawzi walked to work through the park. Every day, he saw litter on the grass and in the bushes. Plastic bags, cans, and old newspapers were everywhere. This made Fawzi sad. He knew that litter was bad for the animals and the plants. He believed that everyone should look after the environment.

One sunny day, as Fawzi walked to work, he noticed something strange. A young man in a black jacket was throwing litter on the ground. Fawzi stopped and watched. The man was not just throwing one piece of litter. He was throwing many things: a bottle, a wrapper, and even a broken umbrella. Fawzi felt a fire grow inside him. He couldn't just ignore this!

Fawzi approached the man. 'Excuse me,' he said politely, 'but you shouldn't throw your rubbish on the ground. It's bad for the park and the animals.' The man turned to Fawzi, looking surprised. 'It's just a few things. It doesn't matter, everyone does it,' he replied with a laugh.

Fawzi shook his head. 'It does matter. Every piece of litter adds up. It hurts our environment.' He pointed to a nearby rubbish bin. 'Please use the bin, it will help keep the park clean. We all need to take care of our world.'

The man frowned but looked at Fawzi's serious face. After a moment, he sighed and walked over to the bin. He started to pick up the rubbish he had thrown down. Fawzi smiled and helped him. They picked up the rubbish together. As they worked, they talked about how important it was to look after nature. The man's face changed. He started to understand.

When they finished, the man said, 'I never thought about the environment before. I'm sorry for being careless. I will do better from now on!' Fawzi felt happy. He knew that he had changed the man's mind about keeping the environment clean.

From that day on, the man returned to the park. He always carried a bag for his rubbish and picked up any litter he found. Fawzi often saw him helping others, just like he had helped him. This small act of kindness grew into something bigger. Many people in the park noticed what they were doing and started to help too.

The park became cleaner, and the flowers bloomed brighter. Fawzi felt proud. He had shown that one regular person can make a difference.

Caring for our environment is important. Small actions can lead to big changes. If we all do our part, we can create a better world for everyone. Always remember, every little bit helps!

EVERYDAY HEROES

Sometimes ordinary people save the day.
Here's a fine example...

THE TRUE SPIRIT OF JORDAN

In December 2015, a Jordanian teenager was walking through a market in the town of Salt when he discovered a bag containing 12,000 Jordanian dinar. At first, the young man couldn't believe it. Then he realised he had to make sure the bag was returned to its owner, so he asked for help from his father, a local trader.

Despite not coming from a rich family, the young man immediately knew he had to find the bag's owner. He and his father set out straight away to find the owner of the bag and were able to return the money to him a few days later.

When the Jordanian teenager was interviewed on national radio, the head of the radio station said that the young man represented the true spirit of Jordan. His father was very proud that his son had decided straight away to do the right thing.

Are you an everyday hero? Or have you heard of one?

Write in and tell us your stories about heroes.

---

- 1 Look at the photo and read the introduction to the article. What kind of story do you think it tells?
- 2 Read the story and check your answer to Exercise 1. Then answer the questions below.
  - 1 What was the young man's first reaction when he saw the bag?
  - 2 Who did he ask for help?
  - 3 What happened to the bag?
  - 4 Who said the teenager showed the true spirit of Jordan?
- 3 Study the Writing box. In pairs, find phrases in the story which match each piece of advice in the box.
- 4 WRITING TASK Write a true or invented story about an everyday hero. Use the Writing box to help you.
  - 🗂 Use the Graphic Organiser for this unit to help you plan your writing.
- 5 SPEAKING In pairs, discuss the story and answer the questions.
  - 1 How do you think they found the bag's owner?
  - 2 Did he do the right thing?
  - 3 Would you do the same thing if you were in the same situation?
- 6 SPEAKING In groups, discuss cases of everyday heroes you know from your life or from the news.

Did you see that story on the news about a young guy from ...? He saw a person save a child and then run away, so he ...

WRITING | A story

- Say when it happened:
This happened last week/just before the summer.
It was about three months ago.
- Say where it happened:
We were at home.
I was in a shop.
- Give some background. Use the Past Perfect and the Past Continuous:
I'd decided to buy a pair of jeans.
I was waiting to pay when ...
- Say what happened. Use the Past Simple, direct speech and/or reported speech:
A man stopped a heavy shelf falling on me and walked away. I ran after him.
He said, 'Don't worry about it'./He told me not to worry about it.
- Say how you (or other people) felt:
I was so frightened.
She seemed surprised.
He felt like laughing.
- Connect your sentences:
At first, ... but then ...
when/while/as soon as/right after that/ later a few days before that/just before/the day before so/so that/and/but/because/although

- 1 In pairs, read the definition below. Then, discuss your thoughts on the copyright law.

Copyright is a law which says that a creator owns the work he or she creates, for example a photo, a piece of music or a written text. This means that other people have to ask for permission to copy, share or perform any part of that work.

- 2 10.12 Listen to three artists talking about copyright. Match artists 1–3 with statements A–D. There is one extra statement.

This speaker

- A  expects to receive money for all of his/her creative work.
  - B  lets everybody use his/her work for free.
  - C  stresses the importance of saying who created a piece of work.
  - D  explains how he/she uses other people's work.
- 3 In pairs, discuss the situations below. Which things are OK and not OK to do?
- 1 You share some interesting photos you found online on your social media account.
  - 2 In your school essay, you quote some fragments from an interesting article you found online. You do not say where the fragments come from.
  - 3 You are working on a presentation for a History class. In the presentation, you use clips from famous historical films.
  - 4 You write a post for a book club forum. In the post you copy large fragments from a famous 19th-century novel.

- 4 Read the text on page 59 and complete the advice below with the words from the box.

copyright licence resources school small portion sources

LIFE SKILLS | How to use online resources

When you use media for a school project or homework, think about the following:

• Is this Fair Use?

Under 'fair use' you usually don't need permission to use a <sup>1</sup>small portion of copyright materials for <sup>2</sup>_____ work.

Instead of copying, create your own <sup>3</sup>_____.

If that's not possible,

Search for public domain

Public domain works are no longer protected by <sup>4</sup>_____, so you can use them in any way you want.

Search for Creative Commons

A Creative Commons <sup>5</sup>_____ explains how you can use someone's work.

• Always cite your <sup>6</sup>_____ – give credit to the authors.

COPYRIGHT BASICS FOR SCHOOL PROJECTS

09-10

Imagine you've just got a new school assignment: you have to prepare a project or a presentation. You will probably want to use some photos, music files, artwork, videos, or fragments of literary works from the Internet. But what about copyright laws? Do you have to ask the people who created these works for permission? As it turns out, you can legally draw from online resources as long as you follow some rules.

FAIR USE

10 Each country has different laws. In the United States, for example, it's OK to copy a small amount of someone's work without permission, if it is used in certain ways. An example of 'fair use' is when students and teachers use copyrighted materials in the classroom for educational purposes.

15 Think about creating your own media for the project: maybe you can take some photos or make a video clip. In fact, this may be a great opportunity to show your talent and skills. If that isn't possible, use public domain or open licensed materials.

PUBLIC DOMAIN

If something is public domain, it belongs to all people in general, so you can usually use it without breaking any laws. As a rule, most work becomes public domain after copyright has ended (in many countries, it's 70 years after the creator's death). The works of Shakespeare and Mozart fit into this category, for instance. Also, official documents, facts, ideas, film and book titles are in the public domain. You can easily find such materials online, for example on Wikimedia Commons or various government websites, such as NASA or the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

CREATIVE COMMONS

Some authors and artists make their work 'open' – they want others to reuse their work without having to ask for permission. They use a licence which is a set of rules explaining how you may use the work created by someone else.

Finally, when you work on any school assignment, remember to make a list of all the books, websites, images or articles that you used.

5 In pairs, read the situations in Exercise 3 again. Do you want to change any of your answers now?

6 DEBATE In groups, discuss the questions. Use the arguments below to help you.

What are the pros and cons of copyright? Should we have the right to use other people's work available online for free?

For copyright:

- Thanks to copyright, artists can make money from the work they create.
- Copyright encourages people to be creative and innovative.

Against copyright:

- It's important that everyone has free access to works of culture.
- Copyright laws are not up-to-date: they do not really work in a digital world.

CS1.1

Ali Alghanem comes from Jordan and is studying Economics at Brunel University London. Here's his guide to some of the strange words and phrases a visitor to Britain will definitely hear a lot.

A 'Sorry'

In most countries, people say sorry when they've done something wrong and it's their fault. British people seem to use the word 'sorry' all the time! If you drop something, a British person will say, 'Sorry, I think you dropped something.' If you phone the wrong number, the other person will say, 'Sorry, I think you've got the wrong number.' When I first came here, I often asked myself, 'Why are they saying sorry to me? It's not their fault!' I realise now that the British don't like conflict with people they don't know, so they think it helps to say 'sorry' a lot. In fact, 'sorry' is a typically British way to start talking to a stranger (like 'Excuse me').

B 'A bit'

Like 'sorry,' 'a bit' is another thing British people say a lot. 'It's a bit cold!' 'The film was a bit long.' 'The day was a bit boring.' A dictionary tells you that 'a bit' means 'a little,' but British people often use this expression to politely criticise. So, if someone says your conversation is 'a bit loud,' it probably means it's too loud and you should be quieter.

C 'All right?'

When I started university, I was surprised at how often people in my group asked me 'All right?' when they saw me. I felt very lucky to have such caring friends who were always asking if I was OK! I often used to answer by telling them what was happening in my life, good and bad. But I quickly learnt that 'All right?' is just another way of saying 'Hi' or 'Hello.' The 'correct' way to answer isn't to talk about your problems – you should simply shout back 'All right, mate!' ('mate' means 'friend', by the way.) You also often hear 'Hiya' or even 'Yo!' instead of 'Hi.'

D 'What happened to the summer?'

'It's too hot!' 'Will this rain ever end?' 'What happened to the summer?' 'Nice weather for ducks!' These are some of the fascinating conversations I have when I meet my neighbours on the street. When I first came here, I was surprised that everyone wants to talk about the weather. But now I know why. Firstly, the weather really does change a lot from day to day. Secondly, British people talk about the weather because it's a good way to be friendly without asking personal questions. By the way, the 'correct' way to answer when someone comments on the weather – and you agree – is to say 'I know!' in a happy voice.

GLOSSARY

fault – a mistake for which you are to blame

upset – unhappy because something unpleasant has happened

stranger – someone that you don't know

1 In pairs, answer the questions.

- 1 Look at the dictionary definition. Do you often use colloquial language?

col•lo•qui•al /kə'ləʊkwɪəl/ adj used in everyday, informal conversation:
colloquial language/phrases

- 2 What are the best ways of learning colloquial English? Which ones do you use? Use the prompts below or your own ideas.

British TV programmes British films
British vloggers contact with British people visiting an English-speaking country

2 Do you know what these colloquial words and phrases mean? Read the article quickly and check your ideas.

Yo! a bit (loud) mate

3 Read the article again and decide if statements 1–5 are true or false.

- 1  British people only say 'sorry' when they've done something wrong.
- 2  British people often say 'sorry' to begin a conversation.
- 3  British people sometimes use 'a bit' to make a polite complaint.
- 4  When someone says 'All right?', he or she is asking about your problems.
- 5  It is friendly to talk about the weather.

4 In pairs, decide which words best describe the British from Ali's description. Say why.

formal friendly informal polite rude unfriendly

5 CS1.2 In pairs, replace the underlined words with another word or phrase to make them more 'British.' Listen and check.

- 1 Excuse me, I think you're sitting in my seat.
Sorry,
- 2 I'm too cold.
- 3 Hello, Dan!

1 In pairs/groups, discuss the questions.

- 1 Have you read David Copperfield, Great Expectations and Oliver Twist or seen the film versions? The main character in each story is a young boy. What else do they have in common?
- 2 Why is it important to read classic novels like these ones? What classic novels are important in your country?

2 Read the Fact box and the text quickly. What do Charles Dickens and David Copperfield have in common? Give examples from the text.

FACT BOX Charles Dickens

Charles Dickens came from a very poor family. But he became one of the most successful British writers of all time. He wrote many stories during the 1800s including David Copperfield. Most of them were published in magazines which was normal at that time. David Copperfield tells the story of David from his birth to later life.

3 Read the text again. Decide if statements 1-6 are true or false. Correct the false statements.

- 1  David Copperfield went to Yarmouth alone.
- 2  Peggotty hadn't seen her cousin for a long time.
- 3  Ham's house is on a beach.
- 4  Ham's house looks like a boat.
- 5  David Copperfield sometimes felt like he was on a boat because he could smell fish.
- 6  Emily is Ham's niece.

4 Check the highlighted adverbs in the text. Then, in pairs, choose the correct adverbs in sentences 1-6. Say if the sentences are true for you.

- 1 My classmates always talk patiently / cheerfully until the teacher arrives.
- 2 I think it's incredibly / quietly difficult to learn a new language.

3 I spend a lot of time sitting at home excitedly / quietly and reading.

4 I laugh nervously / cheerfully and speak too incredibly / quickly whenever I meet someone new.

5 Even when I'm really hungry I wait patiently / quickly for my family to sit down before I start eating.

6 I always open my presents nervously / excitedly.

5 LS1.1 Listen to Jaber and Issa discussing the story David Copperfield and match the characters to the information.

- |                                                |                               |
|------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1 <input type="checkbox"/> The Micawber family | a helps David go to school    |
| 2 <input type="checkbox"/> Betsy               | b becomes David's wife        |
| 3 <input type="checkbox"/> Dora                | c gives David a place to live |

6 LS1.1 Listen again and complete the sentences with one word in each gap.

- 1 Jaber would prefer a comedy film.
- 2 Issa thinks that stories about the past are not always _____.
- 3 Issa explains that David has problems with _____ when he lives in London.
- 4 Issa thinks we should all remember to be _____, generous and honest.
- 5 One reason Issa finds the story interesting is that some people think it's actually about the _____.
- 6 Issa doesn't want to tell Jaber about the _____ of the film.

7 SPEAKING In pairs, discuss the questions.

- 1 Do you enjoy watching films or reading books about the past? Why/why not?
- 2 In many ways, David's life is very normal. Do you think everyone's life can make an interesting story? Or only people who lead an extraordinary life?

8 REFLECT | Values What qualities are most important in a person? Look at the list of things in the box and add your own ideas. Then discuss in groups.

- kind
- honest
- generous
- brave
- intelligent
- funny
- popular
- confident
- _____
- _____

9 WRITING TASK Imagine you are David and you are on holiday at Yarmouth with Peggotty. Write a postcard to a friend describing your time and how you feel.

FROM PAGE TO LIFE

Over the years there have been many film and TV adaptations of David Copperfield, with some even made only for children. In these versions some of the characters are cut to make the story more enjoyable for young viewers.

GLOSSARY

- thrilled – extremely pleased and excited array of – a large number of barge – a long boat with a flat bottom, designed for rivers and canals generous – ready to give to other people, especially money, time or help miserable – very unhappy

One day, our servant Peggotty asked me to go and stay with her at her brother's house in Yarmouth, which was by the sea.

'Oh, yes!' I said, cheerfully. 'Will mother come?'

'No, my dear,' said Peggotty quietly. 'She'll stay with Mrs Grayper. She won't be lonely.'

So Peggotty and I travelled by coach to Yarmouth alone.

It stopped outside a grand hotel and Peggotty's cousin, Ham, was waiting patiently to meet us. Peggotty was thrilled to see him.

'Ham!' she said excitedly. 'You look so much taller!'

He was a strong young man, six feet tall, with fair hair. He was friendly but shy. We weren't staying at the hotel, so Ham put me on his back and carried our luggage under his arm. We went past several boatyards and finally came to a wide beach with an array of boats on the sand.

'There's our house, Master Davy,' said Ham.

I couldn't see a house anywhere, but there was a large black barge, or some other kind of old boat, sitting high and dry on the ground.

'Is that it?' I said nervously. 'That ship-looking thing?'

'That's it, Master Davy,' said Ham.

And I noticed that there was a door and windows in the barge.

Mr Peggotty and Ham were fishermen and the little house smelled of fish, but it was incredibly clean inside. Sometimes at night, I could hear the wind and the sea outside, and I began to think that I was sailing on a boat.

Mr Peggotty was a kind and generous man. His niece, Emily, lived with them. Like Ham's parents, her mother and father were both dead.

Emily was a pretty child and most days we collected shells or played on the beach. I loved being with her, and it was a wonderful holiday. I didn't want it to end.

But the time quickly came when Peggotty and I had to go home and I had to say goodbye to my new friends. I was miserable when I thought about leaving little Emily, and I promised to write to her.

It seemed like a long journey home, but when I finally saw our house, I became excited about seeing my mother again.

Unit 6, Lesson 1 Future arrangements and intentions

Going to

Affirmative		Negative
I	am ( 'm )	I	am not ( 'm not )
You/ We/ They	are ( 're )	You/ We/ They	are not ( aren't )
He/ She/It	is ( 's )	He/ She/It	is not ( isn't )

Yes/No questions

Yes/No questions		Short answers
Am	I	Yes, I am .	No, I am not ( 'm not ).
Are	you/ we/ they	Yes, you/we/they are .	No you/we/they are not ( aren't ).
Is	he/ she/it	Yes, he/she/it is .	No, he/she/it is not ( isn't ).

going to change?

Wh- questions

Wh- questions		Short answers
When	am	I	going to change?
	are	you/ we/ they
	is	he/she/ it

Subject questions

Who	is	going to change?
-----	-----------	-------------------------

We use the Present Continuous or going to + infinitive to talk about future arrangements and intentions.

We use the Present Continuous for plans and arrangements for the near future, usually with a time reference:

I'm leaving tomorrow, so I can't go to the cinema with you.

We use be going to + infinitive for intentions, ambitions and future plans which can still change.

My dad is going to teach me how to drive.

Are you going to go to university or find a job when you graduate?

With verbs used with the verb go that describe free-time activities, such as camp (→ go camping), swim (→ go swimming), ski (→ go skiing), etc., for intentions, ambitions and future plans we use going to go.

I'm going to go jogging twice a week this summer.

Unit 6, Lesson 3 Future predictions: going to and will

Will

Affirmative		Negative
I/You/He/ She/It/We/ They	will	be late.	I/You/ He/ She/ It/We/ They will not ( won't ) be late.

Yes/No questions

Yes/No questions		Short answers
Will	I/you/he/ she/it/ we/they	be late?	Yes, I/you/he/she/it/we/ they will .
			No, I/you/he/she/it/we/ they will not ( won't ).

Wh- questions

What	will	happen?
------	-------------	---------

Subject questions

Who	will	be late?
-----	-------------	----------

We use going to + infinitive or will + infinitive to make future predictions.

We use be going to + infinitive for predictions about the future based on what we know and can see now:

It's ten to four, and the lecture starts at four o'clock. We're not going to get to the lecture on time.

We use will + infinitive for predictions about the future based on our opinions, intuition or experience. We often use expressions like I'm sure, I think and In my opinion before will:

The traffic is fairly light at this time of day. I'm sure the bus will arrive on time.

If we want to say that we think an event will not happen in the future, we use I don't think + will:
I don't think I'll make it on time today.

Unit 7, Lesson 1 Present Perfect (1)

Present Perfect
Affirmative			Negative
I/ You/ We/ They	have	finished.	I/ You/ We/ They	have not (haven't)	finished.
He/ She/ It	has		He/ She/ It	has not (hasn't)
Yes/No questions			Short answers
Have	I/ you/ we/ they	finished?	Yes, I/you/we/they have . No, I/you/we/they have not (haven't) .
Has	he/ she/ it		Yes, he/she/it has . No, he/she/it has not (hasn't) .
Wh- questions
What	have		I/you/we/they		finished?
	has		he/she/it
Subject questions
Who	has	finished?

We use the Present Perfect to talk about:

- recent events which happened at an indefinite time in the past and other news:
They've offered me a job.
- actions and events which ended in the past but we don't know or it's not important when exactly they happened:
Manal has been to Rome.
Have you ever had a job interview?

Spelling rules: past participle

Regular verbs

The past participle form of regular verbs is the same as their Past Simple form.

Irregular verbs

For a list of irregular verbs, see page 74.

Common time expressions used with the Present Perfect:

- ever* – used in questions:
Have you ever done anything for the environment?
- never* – used in negative sentences:
My grandparents have never left England.
- already* and just – used mainly in affirmative sentences:
I have already seen this film.
They have just left.
- yet* – used at the end of negative sentences and questions, to express an expectation that the action will happen even though it hasn't happened yet:
I haven't seen Tareq's job application yet.
Has the boss interviewed any candidates yet?

When we use the Present Perfect to mention actions and events that ended in the past, we never say when exactly they happened:
We have arrived.

If we want to ask or say when something happened, we have to use the Past Simple:
When did you arrive?
We arrived an hour ago.

Unit 7, Lesson 2 Present Perfect (2)

We use the Present Perfect to talk about states and actions that started in the past and still continue. We often use since and for when we use the Present Perfect in this way.

- Since* points to a moment in time when the activity started:
since 2000/Monday/last summer/my birthday
We have owned this house since 1997.
- For* gives a time period between a time in the past and now:
for five minutes/two weeks/a long time/ages
I have known Suha for ten years.

When we ask about duration, we use How long?
How long has television existed?

When we want to talk about states or actions that started in the past and still continue, we use the Present Perfect, NOT the Present Simple:
My mum has been self-employed since 2014.

Unit 8, Lesson 1 Verb patterns: the infinitive and the -ing form

We use the -ing form after these verbs: avoid, can't stand, consider, continue, don't mind, enjoy, finish, give up, keep (on), miss, practise, spend (time), stop, think about:

Do you enjoy doing experiments in Science class?

We use the to- infinitive after these verbs: agree, can't afford, choose, decide, fail, hope, learn, manage, need, prefer, pretend, promise, refuse, start, try, want, would like, would prefer:

Mendeleev managed to organise elements into groups.

We can use either the -ing form or the infinitive, with no or very little change in meaning, after these verbs: begin, hate, like, love, prefer, start:
I prefer watching TV. = I prefer to watch TV.

We use the infinitive without to after modal verbs: can, could, may, might, must, should:
You mustn't mix those two substances, it can cause an explosion!

We almost always use an -ing form of the verb after prepositions:
The students carried on working on their projects.
Raja is thinking about doing a degree in Biochemistry.

Unit 8, Lesson 5 The first conditional

The first conditional

Condition	Result
If + Present Simple,	will/won't + infinitive
If I work hard,	I will pass my exams.
Result	Condition
will/won't + infinitive	if + Present Simple
I will pass my exams	if I work hard.

First conditional sentences refer to the future. We use them to talk about the possible results of an action:

If I tell them the truth, they won't believe me.

We use the Present Simple in the if-clause, which describes the condition. We use a future form, usually will/won't, in the clause describing the result.

The if-clause (condition) can come first or second in a sentence. If it comes first, it is always followed by a comma:

If you don't go to your sister's graduation, you'll regret it later.

You'll regret it later if you don't go to your sister's graduation.

In questions, we usually put the result clause first:

Will you help me if I have problems with my assignment?

Unit 9 Lesson 1 Past Perfect

Past Perfect

Affirmative			Negative
I/You/ He/ She/ It/ We/ They	had	watched TV.	I/You/ He/ She/ It/ We/ They	had not ( hadn't )	watched TV.

Yes/No questions			Short answers
Had	I/ you/ he/ she/ it/ we/ they	watched TV?	Yes, I/you/he/she/it/we/ they had . No, I/you/he/she/it/we/ they had not (hadn't) .

Wh- questions

What	had	I/you/he/she/ it/we/they	watched on TV?
------	------------	-----------------------------	-----------------------

Subject questions

Who	had	watched TV?
-----	------------	--------------------

We use the Past Perfect to talk about the earliest of two or more events in the past. The action expressed in the Past Perfect happened before the action in the Past Simple:

In the taxi, I realised that I had left the tickets at home. (I left them there and then I got into the taxi.)

Sometimes the Past Perfect changes the meaning:

The children went to sleep when we got home. (First we got home and then the children went to sleep.)

The children had gone to sleep when we got home. (The children were already asleep when we got home.)

In the Past Perfect we often use linkers such as after, already, as soon as, before, by, by the time, once, until, e.g. by the age of six, by the time I was six, by 1978:

By the time I was six, I had learnt how to read.

1 Unit 9, Lesson 1 Join the sentences using the Past Perfect and the linkers in bold.

- 1 I tried to make origami figures. I joined the class. BEFORE
Before I joined the class, I had tried to make origami figures.
- 2 We rehearsed many times in the school gym. We gave a performance. BY THE TIME
- 3 Lubna wrote the script for a short film. She began looking for actors. AS SOON AS
- 4 Issa didn't star in films. He graduated from a film academy. UNTIL
- 5 The artist drew a sketch of my little sister in pencil. He painted an oil portrait. AFTER
- 6 The performance already started. I got to the theatre. WHEN

Unit 9, Lesson 3 Reported speech

Reported speech
Direct speech	Reported speech
Present Simple Abbas: 'I study .' 'Faten doesn't study .'	→ Past Simple Abbas said (that) he studied . Abbas said (that) Faten didn't study .
Present Continuous Abbas: 'I'm studying .' 'Faten isn't studying .'	→ Past Continuous Abbas said (that) he was studying . Abbas said (that) Faten wasn't studying .
Present Perfect Abbas: 'I've studied .' 'Faten hasn't studied .'	→ Past Perfect Abbas said (that) he had studied . Abbas said (that) Faten hadn't studied .
Past Simple Abbas: 'I studied .' 'Faten didn't study .'	→ Past Perfect Abbas said (that) he had studied . Abbas said (that) Faten hadn't studied .

will Abbas: 'I will study .' 'Faten won't study .'	→	would Abbas said (that) he would study . Abbas said (that) Faten wouldn't study .
can Abbas: 'I can study .' 'Faten can't study .'	→	could Abbas said (that) he could study . Abbas said (that) Faten couldn't study .

We make the following changes in reported speech:

- tenses (move 'one tense back') as in the table opposite
- time expressions and words referring to places (depending on the context):
now → at that time/then today → that day yesterday → the day before two hours ago → two hours earlier/before tomorrow → the following day
here → there
- demonstrative pronouns, personal pronouns, object pronouns and possessive adjectives (depending on the context):
this/these → that/those
I/we → he/she/they me/us → him/her/them
my → his/her
our → their
'My mother arrived here yesterday.' → She said that her mother had arrived there the day before.

In reported speech, we often use reporting verbs say and tell. Their meaning is similar, but the verb tell always takes a direct object (a noun or a pronoun). The verb say does not take a direct object, but you can use a noun or a pronoun with it with the preposition to:
His brother said that the dinner was at five o'clock.
His brother said to me that the dinner was at five o'clock.
His brother told me that the dinner was at five o'clock.

Unit 10, Lesson 1 The passive

The passive

Present Simple	Tea is grown in India. Cars are not repaired here. Where are these books sold ?
Past Simple	I was offered a job with the police. These cars were not produced in China. Where was our car made ?
Present Perfect	The puzzle has been finally solved . We have not been informed about the change. Has he been invited to Omar's birthday?

We use the passive when the action is more important than the person who performs it. If we want to add information about the person (the agent), we use the word by:

How many houses were built in the city last year?
The shopping mall is visited by about 50,000 people every day.

Unit 10, Lesson 4 The second conditional

The second conditional

Condition	Result
If + Past Simple	would/wouldn't + infinitive
If my health was better,	I would apply for a job with the police.
Result	Condition
would/wouldn't + infinitive	if + Past Simple
I would apply for a job with the police	if my health was better.

We use second conditional sentences to talk about:

- imaginary situations in the present:
If I were rich, I would live in a huge house.
- improbable events in the future:
If he left home earlier, he would never be late for work.

We use the Past Simple in the if- clause and would/wouldn't in the clause describing the result.

We put a comma at the end of the if- clause if it comes first in the sentence.

In second conditional sentences after I, he, she and it we can use was or were. Were is more formal:

If my health were better, I'd apply for a job with the police.
If he was/were my son, I wouldn't let him stay out so late.

Remember to use were in the phrase If I were you:

If I were you, I would tell him the truth.

STUDENT A

Unit 7, Lesson 6A, Exercise 5, page 22

STUDENT A: Your name is Omar. You're a student from Jordan. You're working as a volunteer for the NGO Médecins Sans Frontières in a refugee camp in Africa. You've been there for nine months. You don't get paid a salary but you get free accommodation, food and flights home. You like the work because the people are so open and friendly and you really feel you're making a difference. Unfortunately, you're in a dangerous place and there are often injuries. It's dangerous and you don't feel safe. Your contract ends in three months' time but you're not sure if you are going to volunteer again or to go back home to Amman to finish your studies.

STUDENT B

Unit 7, Lesson 6A, Exercise 5, page 22

STUDENT B: Your name is Laith. You're a final-year Chemistry student living in Dundee, Scotland. You work part-time in a charity shop. You've had the job for three weeks. You don't get paid but you get to meet a lot of people and you've made some good friends amongst your co-workers. You also get the chance to buy second-hand books, music and clothes at really low prices. The only thing you don't like about the job is the temperature in the shop – it's usually far too hot. When you graduate, you will probably have to leave Dundee to find work but you might look for another charity shop job in your new town.

ALL STUDENTS

Unit 6, Lesson 4A, Exercise 1, page 9

An optimist sees the glass half full. A pessimist sees it half empty. A realist sees the glass completely full: half water and half air.

Unit 8, Lesson 1A, Exercise 3, page 26

Your answers are mostly A: You're curious about the world, you know how to concentrate and you're a hard worker. You should think about becoming a scientist. You might enjoy it.

Your answers are more or less half A and half B: You could be a scientist. It's not impossible. But perhaps a biologist rather than a physicist.

Your answers are mostly B: Your answers show that a career in science is probably not right for you. But don't worry. There are lots of other careers open to you.
