Q1): Read the following text carefully : (17 points)

I'm Mustafa Madi and I'm a mystery shopper. Companies pay me to visit shops and pretend to be an ordinary customer. Afterwards, I report on what I saw. Was the shop tidy? Did the shop assistants smile? Could they answer my difficult questions? Were the changing rooms clean? Was there a long queue for the checkout? The job isn't perfect, of course. Some companies don't pay you (you just get a discount on something you 'bought'). And sometimes there is no work for many weeks. Mystery shopping is a good way to earn extra money but it's not enough to live on.
