Q1: Read the following text and answer the questions:

In the Autumn of 2012, Lisa Ludwinski started her business from her parents' kitchen when she made and sold 40 pies. The reaction to them was so positive that she kept going. What followed was an industrious few years. Lisa took a business class, took on an intern and raised money for her own bakery in Detroit, Michigan. She even did a 24-hour fund-raising activity, bringing in $26,593, which allowed her to open Sister Pie in April, 2015. Integral to Lisa's business philosophy is making Sister Pie a part of the community. Due to this, she operates a 'Pie it Forward' system where customers can purchase a coupon. 2) This is then kept on the wall and can be used by strangers, who may not have enough money, to enjoy a slice of the delicious pies.

- When Lisa Ludwinski first started her business in 2012, she worked from a familiar environment, producing a small business of pies. The overwhelmingly positive response motivated her to continue. Where did she first bake and sell her initial 40 pies?
 - A rented commercial kitchen
 - A friend's bakery
 - Her parents' kitchen
 - A shared community space
- As Lisa expanded her business, she recognized the importance of acquiring new skills and support. To gain a better understanding of the business, she decided to ----- before launching her bakery.
 - Join a baking competition

 - Less than $10,000
 - Over $50,000
 - Exactly $26,593
 - An undisclosed amount
- Sister Pie was built with a strong emphasis on more than just selling baked goods. Lisa's vision included making the bakery an integral part of its surroundings ----- .
 - Exclusivity
 - Community
 - Luxury
 - Profit maximization
- One of the unique features of Sister Pie is the 'Pie it Forward' system, which was designed to encourage generosity among customers. What does this initiative allow customers to do?
 - Prepay for a future order at a discounted rate
 - Buy a coupon that can be used by someone in need

- c) Vote for the next pie flavor to be added to the menu
d) Receive a free slice of pie after multiple purchases
6. To make the 'Pie it Forward' system easily accessible, Sister Pie keeps the purchased coupons in a visible place where anyone can claim them. Where are these coupons displayed?
- a) Inside a donation box near the register
b) Pinned on the wall for public access
c) Behind the counter for staff distribution
d) Handed directly to customers upon request

Q2: Read the following text and answer the questions:

In 2015, Tracy Warshal was in the queue at a busy shop during the holiday season when the man in front of her realised he'd forgotten his wallet. 3) Tracy paid for the stranger's milk and other items, and after thanking her and asking her name, he was on his way. She thought no more of it until a month later when she was contacted by colleagues at the cancer charity where she worked. They told her that the man, who wished to remain anonymous, wanted to donate $10,000 to the foundation in her name. As she was wearing a T-shirt with the charity's name on it at the shop, he was able to track her down. She told reporters, 'I'm just so excited that one small gesture made a huge difference and impact on a lot of people.
